WORTHLESS CHECKS DIVERSION PROGRAM VICTIM'S INFO PACKET

The Worthless Checks Diversion Program (WCDP) originated in March 1990. Its purpose is to demand restitution and service fees for victims of worthless checks, as well as to effectively divert worthless check cases from inundated circuit court dockets. More than 17,000 checks have been received annually at this office. The information provided in this packet is to assist victims with understanding the procedures once a sworn complaint is submitted. Each check filed requires completion of a separate sworn complaint form. An Assistant State Attorney then reviews each check case file to ensure that its acceptance is in accordance with Florida Statutes 832.05.

Sworn Complaint Correction Cover Sheet

WCDP staff may contact victims to correct sworn complaints, provide additional information, or to clarify information on sworn complaints. A cover sheet that is attached to the front of the sworn complaint indicates the specific correction or info needed. ALL REQUESTS should be done expeditiously. Otherwise, delayed responses to requests causes delays in processing sworn complaints, the service of warrants in a timely manner, and delays restitution to victims.

Final Notice (FN) and Capias (Warrant)

Only one Final Notice per check is mailed from the WCDP to notify the check writer that a criminal charge and warrant has been generated, pending payment of full restitution to the victim. Normally, the Final Notice is sent to the check writer within ten (10) business days from receipt of the sworn check complaint. Each Final Notice states the amount of restitution and service fees that must be paid to the victim or designee, by a specified date (usually within 14 calendar days). It further states that failure to do so can result in the service of a warrant. Warrants are routinely activated for service eight (8) to ten (10) weeks from the initial filing date, if a check writer fails to comply to the Final Notice. It is strongly suggested to wait until after this period to check the status of sworn complaints filed, if restitution has not been received. Currently, the WCDP has one deputy sheriff on site, assigned to primarily serve worthless check warrants. Most warrants are usually served in the order that sworn complaints are filed, with some exceptions. However, it is difficult to determine the exact date of service for any warrant.

Worthless Check Diversion Agreement (WCDA)

A Worthless Check Diversion Agreement (WCDA) is a check writer's signed agreement to pay restitution to the victim, and waiver fees to the WCDP by an agreed upon date. A Santa Rosa County Check Diversion case worker interviews the check writer and has him/her complete an income questionnaire before the WCDA is signed. Failed Agreements require a mandatory arrest and arraignment court appearance. The presiding arraignment judge may adjudicate and sentence the check writer during the arraignment hearing, or may refer him/her back to the WCDP.

Restitution and Receipts

Victims should only accept cash or a cashier's check for restitution. ALL RECEIPTS given to the check writer MUST INCLUDE the date restitution was paid, the check number, check amount, service fee, and the date the sworn complaint was stamped received by this office. Receipts from individuals or non-businesses MUST INCLUDE all of the above, with a signature and phone number so that a case worker can verify the receipt.

“15 DAYS” NOTICE TO CHECK WRITER

EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004, IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE V FROM THE FLORIDA STATE LEGISLATURE, CERTIFIED NOTICES ARE NO LONGER REQUIRED AS NOTICE FOR CHECK WRITERS IN ORDER TO FILE WORTHLESS CHECK SWORN COMPLAINTS. HOWEVER, THE LAW REQUIRES THAT A NOTICE MUST BE SENT BY REGULAR MAIL TO THE CHECK WRITER, AND 15 DAYS ALLOWED FOR RESTITUTION TO BE MADE, BEFORE A CRIMINAL COMPLAINT MAY BE FILED. FURTHER, IT REQUIRES THAT YOU ATTEST UNDER OATH THAT NOTICE WAS SENT IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE V. ANY RETURNED NOTICES WOULD BE HELPFUL TO THIS OFFICE IN LOCATING CHECK WRITERS WHEN THE POST OFFICE HAS PROVIDED NEW OR FORWARDING ADDRESSES. THIS OFFICE ENCOURAGES VICTIMS/MERCHANTS TO CONTINUE TO ATTACH RETURNED NOTICES TO SWORN COMPLAINTS FOR THIS REASON.

AFFIDAVIT OF MAIL SERVICE

Florida Statutes 832.05 also requires that an Affidavit of Mail Service accompany each sworn complaint filed. The only exception is if a check has been returned for “account closed.”

Instructions to Complete
Sworn Complaint Forms for Worthless Checks

Complete an original complaint form for each check. A separate complaint form is required for each signature, if the check has more than one signature. Make copies of completed complaint forms, and put in alphabetical order prior to submitting them. They will be stamped with a "RECEIVED DATE" which should be referred to when making inquiries about checks submitted. YOUR COOPERATION by calling ahead to make an appointment to file 25 or more checks is helpful, due to the large volume of checks received daily. It allows this division time to review and process sworn complaints more efficiently, and lessens the need for victims/merchants to return to make corrections. Sworn complaints cannot be processed until corrections have been made.

Attach the original or legal copy of the check to the top left corner of the original sworn complaint with a paper-clip (staples rip the check). Also, attach an Affidavit of Mail Service to the back of the sworn complaint, if the notice is sent by first class mail. Sending a notice via certified mail is no longer required by Florida Statutes. However, a victim may still elect to do so. Notices and/or signed receipt cards returned by the post office should be paper-clipped to the back of the sworn complaint.

Provide the check writer's name as it is signed on the check, even when signed with initials.

Provide the date the check was received personally or by mail.

Provide the current or last known address for the check writer, including the street, city, state and zip code.

Provide as much I.D. info as possible, e.g., dob, driver's license number, race, which will help in the service of warrants. Because of duplicated names, OFFICERS WILL NOT SERVE WARRANTS WITHOUT SOME TYPE OF I.D. to ensure that they are arresting the right person.

Provide the check writer's employer's business name, complete address, and phone number.

Provide the full name, business address, and business phone number of the person who accepted the check. IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO PROVIDE A HOME ADDRESS OR PHONE NUMBER UNLESS THE CHECK IS ACCEPTED BY AN INDIVIDUAL RATHER THAN AT A BUSINESS.

Provide the CITY, COUNTY AND STATE (in same order) where the check was passed/accepted.

Provide the complete address where the check was accepted.

Provide the correct check number and the correct check amount - the legal amount that is written below "Pay to Order of." Counter checks should be indicated as CC or as Counter Check.

Provide what the "check was accepted for," and the "return reason" indicated by the bank.

All sworn complaint forms and affidavits of mail service sent by mail must be notarized prior to mailing.
