Co Founder of Zoop Home Goods ↗

Zoop Home Goods was established in Nashville with the idea of putting local artists, manufacturers, and customers first. What started as an idea to produce fun hand-tufted rugs designed by local artists and designers eventually grew into a unique opportunity to support other small businesses around the country.

Make Nashville Consulting ↗

Assisted in launching better communication platforms for makers to communicate to one another (Slack and Asana integration) about upcoming fundraisers, events, and classes. Also, taught community ceramic classes!

Guerilla Biscuits ↗

Designed and fabricated BIZKIT shaped candles that use USA grown soy wax and biodegradable wicks. Candles that smell amazing and support local soy bean growers.

More about me

In my next job it's important that...

Work with a larger team! I am the lead Product Manager and Designer for many clients at my current job and I would love to be able to grow with a team. Collaboration is where I shine!

At work I'm best at...

Building sustainable relationships with my clients. My goal is to always make the client feel like their concerns are being heard by actively listening and engaging in radical empathy.

Right now I'm learning...

More about scaling design systems and managing product deployments.
