LENT Edition

27th February 2021

Rev Canon Martin writes...

Dear friends,

Recorded services to continue

Although the Prime Minister outlined a plan over the next months for the relaxing of COVID restrictions, we shall continue to be cautious in order to keep everyone safe. So, All Saints will remain closed for Sunday services; worship will continue to be recorded and made available online. I am grateful to all of you who have been contributing to the worship, e.g. with readings and intercessions. Our especial thanks go to Tony Robinson and Corrie Hibberd, working so wonderfully with all the technology required for editing and putting it all on the web. How we look forward to meeting together for worship and friendship again!

Lent

We are now in the Church season of 'Lent', a word that originally meant 'time of Spring' but which now refers to the six weeks' period of preparation for Holy Week and Easter. Already as we look around outside we can see signs of buds and flowers, shoots and new growth. It certainly lifts the spirits in this dark time.

In Sunday sermons and in homegroups, we're studying some of the Psalms, seeking to deepen our relationship with God. I have prepared some daily readings in Mark's Gospel ('Mark 4 Lent') – find them on the church website – and I hope some of you are finding these helpful. There are some short videos to accompany the readings.

As we cast our minds towards Holy Week, we begin to think again about Good Friday when our Lord Jesus Christ suffered and died. He carried our sins in his body, so that we can be freed and forgiven.

'As a hen gathers her chickens under her wings...'

At Matthew 23:37 (or Luke 13:34), Jesus said to the people of Jerusalem, 'How often I have longed to gather your children together as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings'.

This image of the hen and chickens pictures a farmyard fire in which the hen gathers her brood under her wings for safety. When the fire is over, she may herself have been scorched to death, but the chickens will be alive, protected under her wings. This is just like the Old Testament which often speaks of the people sheltering under God's wings; for example:

"Under His wings you will find refuge..."

'God will cover you with feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge'. (Psalm 91:4)

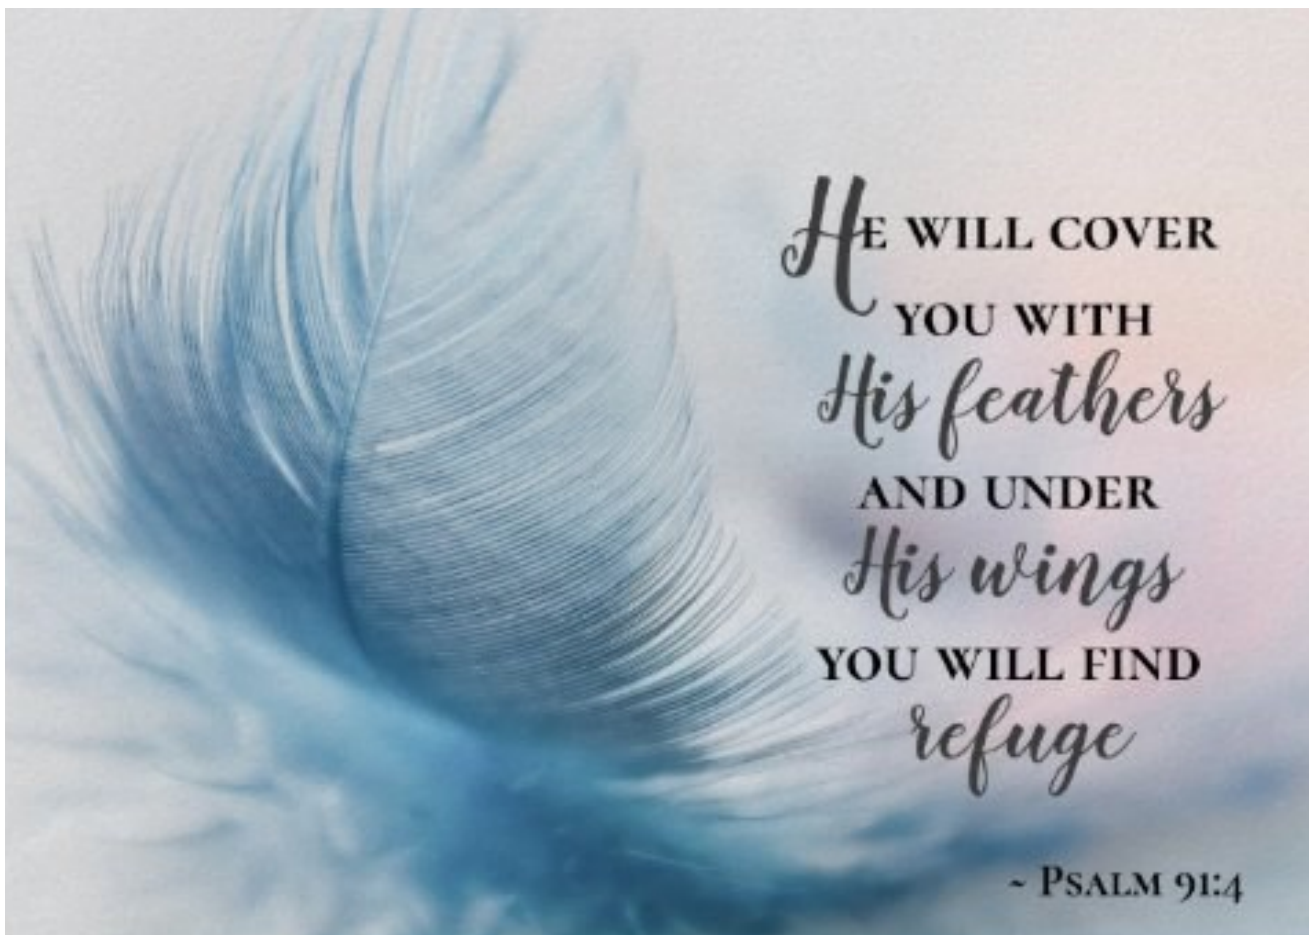

Jesus knew that he would suffer and he gladly did so, for us. As Peter wrote, 'Christ died for sins, once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God.' (1 Peter 3:18).

We need to feel safe and secure, and to know that everything will be all right. The Lord Jesus promises to shelter and protect us, so long as we are willing to get close to him.

The safe place to be is 'abiding in him'.

Finally, as the Archbishops have requested, let us keep praying for our Church and nation, and for all in our community who face particular problems. The success of the vaccination programme so far is very encouraging, but we continue to need God's help and strength in these difficult times. If you need any help at all, with anything, please contact me or Jeremy in the first instance.

With my prayers and best wishes,
Martin

Joy Hegarty RIP

Our dear friend Joy Hegarty passed away at home after a long illness. Joy has been part of the life of All Saints for many many years, and will be greatly missed. Our sympathies go to Brian and the family. Details of funeral arrangements will follow in due course.

Martin & Jeremy

Elsbeth Boulton RIP

Elsbeth Boulton has sadly died aged 93. I expect older members of the congregation will remember her and her husband Peter. She lived all her life in Sanderstead, grew up in Downsway and married Peter in 1948 at the URC. They were members of All Saints' until they moved to Aldwinkle in Northamptonshire about 8 years ago to be near their family. They always attended the 8am service and were members of a House Group. Elsbeth was charming, very hospitable, a keen gardener who enjoyed sharing her garden and plants with other people. Peter died about 4 years ago and Elsbeth continued to enjoy life with her daughters and grandchildren.

Ann Tapson

Ron Truscott RIP

We were saddened to hear that Monique Truscott's husband, Ron, died this week. Ron had been unwell for a while. Our sympathies and prayers are with Monique and her family at this sad time.

PLEASE PRAY - Message from Chris Hawksbee

Just a quick note to say that Alison and I came down with Covid this week. We had fevers, and Alison felt rather week. We took ourselves to the Baptist hospital to get checked out. We had a blood test done and are waiting the results. We were given medications and told to keep an eye on the oxygen level in our blood.

Could you send this info to our supporters.

Thanks, Chris

BISHOP'S LENT CALL 2021

Last year so much has changed and we have all become much more aware of the fragility our lives and our communities. The footballer Marcus Rashford has helped to raise everyone's awareness of the need to ensure that our children are adequately fed during school holidays. But it is not just schoolchildren who are at risk. Whole families are in need of help, as well as couples and individuals. That is why we are focusing the Bishop's Lent Call this year on food insecurity, both here in the Diocese and in our Link Dioceses.

You can ask yourself, 'What strikes me in this reading?'
Or, 'Do I have questions I wish to think about?'

However we choose to spend the days of Lent, and whatever materials we decide to use, I pray that we all may grow more and more to know God and his presence in our lives.

With my prayers,

DEVOTIONS DURING LENT

To assist with devotional times during Lent, many of us find it helpful to use "Stations of the Cross" as we journey through this season. Last year, I recorded a version on Powerpoint which many of you found helpful. I am making this available again this year. It consists of a series of slides, with an audio file embedded in each one containing a message appropriate for each stage of the journey.

This year, I have also recorded 15 "Stations of the Resurrection" based in part on reflections published by Richard Greatrex in his book of the same name. For this, I have selected 15 great works of art by a wide variety of different artists ranging from the Italian Renaissance period to more contemporary artworks. This will appeal especially to lovers of art.

These files are available to anyone who would like access them. They are large files, and we are exploring whether we might be able to put them on our website. In the meantime, if you would like to use either of them in your Lenten devotions, please let me know on grmbj@aol.com and I will arrange for copies to be sent to you. If you have an iPad, I can send you a "Keynote" version. If you use a Windows PC or Laptop I will be happy to send you the Powerpoint version. As long as you allow plenty of time to download the material, all should be well!

Annual Parochial Church Meeting (APCM)

You may recall that in the dim and distant days before lockdown, we used to hold an All Saints' AGM in April followed three weeks later by the APCM. With the dissolution of the Team Ministry, only the APCM is now required and although the 2020 APCM was delayed until 6th October last, we shall revert to the April timing in 2021.

The 2021 APCM will therefore be held at 8.00pm on Tuesday 27th April and due to the pandemic, the meeting will be held online. The Diocese has confirmed that this is in order and the relevant notices will go on display shortly. Please put the date in your diaries.

PCC representatives

We currently have our full quota of PCC representatives with no-one reaching the end of their term of office, so unless there are any resignations there will be no need to elect any further PCC members.

Deanery Synod

We currently have two vacancies for Deanery Synod representatives and application forms will be available from the Parish Office or electronically from Rosanne (admin@sanderstead-parish.org.uk). Once completed, they should be returned to the Parish Office or to Martin or Jeremy marked for the attention of the PCC Secretary.

Churchwardens

Churchwardens are elected annually and although Mike Fixter and Sue Thomas were only elected in October 2020 a further election will be required at the APCM. We hope that they will both stand for re-election but others are also entitled to put their names forward. Again, nomination forms will be available via the Parish Office or from Rosanne and completed forms should be returned to the Parish Office or to Martin or Jeremy as above.

If you have any questions relating to the APCM, please contact me on 020 8657 4562 (dccsec@sanderstead-parish.org.uk).

Electoral Roll

As required by the Church Representation Rules, the Parish of Sanderstead Electoral Roll is required to be updated for 2021; an official Notice to that effect will be placed on the All Saints Church and Church Halls external noticeboards as from 28 February 2021.

If you are not already on the Electoral Roll or Parish Directory and wish to be included, please request the application forms from the Electoral Roll Officer. Inclusion in the Parish Directory is optional for those on the Electoral Roll. The application forms should be returned to the Parish Office no later than 29 March 2021.

Please contact the Electoral Roll Officer if:

1. You would like a copy of the application forms, or
2. You wish your name to be removed from the current Electoral Roll or Parish Directory, or
3. You wish to make any amendments to your contact details currently held e.g. change of name, address, telephone, email, or
4. You know of any parishioner or member of the congregation who has passed away or moved since September 2020, or
5. You have any queries.

The revised Parish Electoral Roll for Spring 2021 will be published on 2 April 2021 and can be viewed on the external notice boards of All Saints Church and Church Halls.

If you require a draft copy because you are unable to view the roll on the notice boards and/or if you detect any omissions or other errors on the roll, please would you contact myself, the Electoral Roll Officer on 020 8657 7397 (david.chillman@btinternet.com) as soon as possible.

Helpful tips for the technophobes

Hello Everyone,

I know that there are quite a few people in the church who don't really understand all the tech that we've been getting our heads around for the past year. People like me! However, for those who are willing to try and get to grips with things I have found a great company that publishes some very user-friendly guides - even written in British English - and using simple language that cuts through the volumes of guff to give you the basics that can really help. They also will send you regular emails if you ask to subscribe. Now, I generally think most of this is rubbish, but gave it a chance and am happy I did. I've just read the iPhone guide book (there are many more), so feel that I can recommend it to everyone. They are also moving into online courses - I haven't tried this, but would go ahead on the strength of being impressed by their simple guides I've already come across. So if anyone asks for help, this may be of use:

This beautifully shot book is a testament to the history and heritage of our buildings, those who have been inspired by them, and the glory of God. I hope all who read it are encouraged to visit and be, in their own way, a part of the cathedral community.'

Children & Families Corner

Hi everyone,

Easter in a Bag

My main purpose for writing today is to let you know that we are doing something special for Easter this year called 'Easter in a Bag' and we will be giving away 200 amazing goody / craft bags. We are prioritising everyone on our mailing list to receive one per child and after that we will be offering them to the uniformed (scouting groups). At time of writing 43 bags are spoken for so, if you would like one please don't delay as they will be given out on a first come first served basis.

From Palm Sunday till Good Friday, we will be releasing a video a day explaining how to do the crafts and telling the story of Holy Week in a family friendly manner. There will be a special service for all (online) for Good Friday reflecting on the cross in an engaging way and we hope to gather online to celebrate Easter day together.

To reserve a bag send me an email to chris.r.newman85@gmail.com telling me how many children would like a bag and where you would like them delivered to. We will start delivering them the fortnight before Palm Sunday.

Family Fun Messy Church

Some other news - the new Family Fun Messy Church video for Lent is now available.

To take part in the craft you will need a glass jar, a tealight candle (battery operated for safety), tissue paper or coloured cellophane, PVA glue, 2 short sticks, a piece of paper, brown paint or used tea bag, a pen and some ribbon or string.

Here is the You tube link.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=L2LsysrNERI>

That's all for now except for keep your eyes peeled in the churchyard for the giant Easter Garden coming soon!

God bless,

Chris Newman,

Children and Families Pastor

Can you help?

We are appealing for anyone who has an accurate set of scales and would be willing to separate two large bags of cress seed into 200 2 gram envelopes to be included in the craft bags, please email me if you are interested, thank you. Chris

A Little Holy Land Geography – a Response

David Chillman concludes his article in the New Year Newsletter hoping “there is something to delight and cheer you” Yes! absolutely.

Having lived near Watford before we moved here to Sanderstead, I think Mount Nebo sounds much more interesting.

I’ve been very fortunate – blessed indeed – to go on two pilgrimages to the Holy Land. The first was with the then Bishop of Southwark – Roy Williamson with his Chaplain Rev Andrew Nunn – in 1997, and the second with my Lincolnshire friend in 2000, led by the then Archbishop of York, David Hope.

I wrote a piece for the Parish Magazine “Signpost” on my return visit and noted the individual stamp which the leader puts on this very special journey in faith. It could not of course be the first time all over again, but memories of both pilgrimages were kindled by David’s article.

The contrast between our time staying in Jerusalem and the several days in Tiberius was quite dramatic. The modern city with crowds, bustling markets and a wonderful variety of Churches was at times quite bewildering but with oases of calm such as the Garden of Gethsemane. We walked up the Via Dolorosa, stopping to mark the Stations of the Cross; the whole street lined with small stalls and shops as in a bazaar, and people going about their daily lives as usual.

As a complete contrast, we stood on the shores of the Sea of Galilee – such a peaceful setting – and celebrated a short service on a boat aboard the Lake, led by David Hope. (The Sea was quite rough, as I remember!).

At the end of it all, we were reminded that our Pilgrimage is just an eight-day wonder! It is but a part of our continuing journey with Jesus. We are pilgrims still.

PRAISE TO THE LORD FOR THE JOYS OF THE EARTH

Praise to the Lord for the joys of the earth:
Cycles of season and reason and birth,
Contrasts in outlook and landscape and need,
Challenge of climate, of famine and greed.

Praise to the Lord for the progress of life:
Cradle and grave, bond of husband and wife,
Pain of youth growing and wrinkling of age,
Questions in step with experience and stage.

Praise to the Lord for his care of our kind:
Faith for the faithless and sight for the blind;
Healing, acceptance, disturbance and change,
All the emotions through which our lives range.

Praise to the Lord for the people we meet,
Safe in the homes or at risk on the street.
Kiss of a lover and friendship's embrace,
Smile of a stranger and words full of grace.

Praise to the Lord for the carpenter's son,
Dovetailing worship and work into one:
Tradesman and teacher and vagrant and friend,
Source of all life in this world without end.

Hymn by John L. Bell (b. 1949) and Graham Maule (b. 1958)

A NEED, AT TIMES, TO BE TOGETHER AND TALK

...A need, at times, to be together and talk,
And then the finding we can walk
More firmly through dark narrow places,
And meet more easily nightmare faces;
A need to reach out, sometimes, hand to hand,
And then find Earth less like an alien land...
