Praying with the art of Giotto - Tuesday 6 June, 7.30-8.30pm, on Zoom, guided by Revd Jeremy Groombridge. Free event.

Giotto di Bondone was 'the most sovereign master of painting in his time'. In 14th century Florence he painted sublime images of the life of Jesus and Italian saints. Perhaps his most famous composition is Pentecost. So, it is appropriate that, towards the start of the season of Pentecost, we use his paintings to inspire our prayers. Our prayer, silence and appreciation of a great artist will be guided by the Revd Jeremy Groombridge. To book your place, email learning@southwark.anglican.org

As they are opening specially for us, we need an idea of numbers beforehand. Please let Dick Hibberd or David Chillman know by Sunday 11 June if you're interested or email mensgroup@sanderstead-parish.org.uk

Ladies are welcome at all Men's Group events, which are a great way to meet people.

MEMORIAL / ANNIVERSARY FLOWERS It is with regret that we are having to substantially raise the charge for flower pedestals requested in memory of a loved one, celebrating a significant wedding anniversary etc. This is due to the unprecedented rise in the cost of flowers in the last year. The charge will now be £60. Lynne Davison & Ann Turner
