Saturday 24 May - MEN'S GROUP BREAKFAST TALK, 9am

Do join us to hear the derring-do adventures of our own Rev Steve Cooper who will be speaking about the history of the RNLI, of his involvement with the Fleetwood Lifeboat and the work of the RNLI today. Steve will also speak about his current role with teaching Water Safety to young people and will illustrate his talk and bring along some of his usual props. The Church will be open from 9am for tea, coffee and pastries and Steve's talk will start about 9.30 or thereafter, as soon as we've polished off the pastries!

Everyone is welcome including ladies as always. It would be useful to know numbers in advance for catering, so please let one of us know if possible. Late-comers are always welcome on the door however. Do hope you can come along; you're assured of a warm welcome and a lively start to the day.
