Psalm 45, 1-2, 6-9

1 My heart is stirred by a noble theme as I recite my verses for the king;
my tongue is the pen of a skilful writer.

2 You are the most excellent of men and your lips have been anointed with grace, since God has blessed you forever.

6 Your throne, O God, will last for ever and ever;
a sceptre of justice will be the sceptre of your kingdom.

7 You love righteousness and hate wickedness;
therefore God, your God, has set you above
your companions
by anointing you with the oil of joy.

8 All your robes are fragrant with myrrh and aloes and
cassia;
from palaces adorned with ivory
the music of the strings makes you glad.

9 Daughters of kings are among your honoured
women;
at your right hand is the royal bride in gold of Ophir.

Almighty God,
who called us in the Church to bear witness that you were in Christ reconciling the world to yourself, help us to proclaim the good news of your love that all who hear it may be drawn to you;
through Jesus Christ,
who was lifted up on the cross
and is now glorified with you on high.
Amen
