If anyone has any books or commentaries on the poems of George Herbert, Revd Jeremy would be pleased to hear from you. This is in connection with an essay on "The treatment of prayer in the poetry of George Herbert". I have the text of the two key poems, Prayer (i) and Prayer (ii) but am especially interested in any commentary on these poems or any thoughts on other prayers by Herbert that tell us something about his approach to prayer. Revd Jeremy

TODDLER GROUP: VOLUNTEERS NEEDED to help make tea and coffee or assist with running the 9-11.30 morning sessions on Tuesdays and Fridays during school term time. ## Psalm 36:5-10

5 Your love, Lord, reaches to the heavens,
your faithfulness to the skies.

6 Your righteousness is like the highest mountains,
your justice like the great deep.
You, Lord, preserve both people and animals.

7 How priceless is your unfailing love, O God!
People take refuge in the shadow of your wings.

8 They feast in the abundance of your house;
you give them drink from your river of delights.

9 For with you is the fountain of life;
in your light we see light.

10 Continue your love to those who know you,
your righteousness to the upright in heart.
