ANNUAL PAROCHIAL CHURCH MEETING

Elections for Deanery, Synod, PCC and DCCs are now held at Church Annual General Meetings. Under current arrangements, one third of the elected members of PCC and DCCs retire each year. Synod representatives are elected for three-year terms and an election was held in 2017. Elections may also be held to fill vacancies during the three-year period.

In addition to these regular elections, AGMs may hold elections to fill vacancies arising for other reasons.

For convenience, a complete list of those elected, or continuing to serve, is set out below.

Members of Diocesan Synod are ex officio members of the relevant Deanery Synod/PCC/DCC. In our case Rosemary Kempzell was elected to Southwark Diocesan Synod in June 2018, and is consequently an ex officio member of Croydon South Deanery Synod, Sanderstead PCC & All Saints' DCC.

Deanery Synod members are ex officio members of their respective PCC and DCC. PCC members are ex officio members of their respective DCC. Churchwardens are ex officio members of PCC and of their respective DCC.

Readers are ex officio members of their respective DCC. There is also provision for a representative of the Readers to sit on PCC; this position is currently vacant.
