OTHER NEWS...

Farewell from the Garratts

Leaving a church is never easy. It is letting go of a community and stepping out in faith. Since moving to Sanderstead in 2019, we have faced difficulties that we could never have imagined. In this situation, we are so grateful that the Lord led us to All Saints where we have been befriended by you and shared in worship and fellowship together. You have been so welcoming and caring, that it is with reluctance that we leave you. In all this is a realisation that we really need to live closer to some of our family.

We do wish you well for the future. We are particularly disappointed to leave at what is the start of a very exciting journey for All Saints.

We do plan to keep in touch with you, and you are most welcome to visit us if you fancy a day by the sea.

With every blessing to you all,

Kevin and Jane
