Table Conversation Cards

Cut them apart, stack them in a pile and take turns. Pass on any you like.

1

What smell makes you think of home?

2

What is your favorite food on the table, and who made it?

3

Ask an older person: what food did you love when you were my age?

4

What are you looking forward to?

5

If you could invite anyone to dinner, who would it be?

6

What is the funniest thing that ever happened at a meal?

7

Tell about a time someone helped you.

8

What is a food you thought you wouldn't like, and now do?

9

What is a family story you like to hear again?

Joke!

What do you call a turkey on the day after Thanksgiving?

Lucky!

Joke!

Why did the turkey join the band?

It had the drumsticks!

12

Who taught you something? What was it?

With Peko Pal, kids print pages like this themselves.

A screen-free first device, before the phone. pekopal.com

Table Conversation Cards

Cut them apart, stack them in a pile and take turns. Pass on any you like.

13

What would you name a new pie flavor?

14

Say one thing you appreciate about the person on your left.

15

What is a small thing that makes a day better?

16

What was your favorite part of this year?

17

What food from somewhere else would you like to try?

18

If you could ask a grandparent one question, what would it be?

19

What is a game you like to play with other people?

20

What is something kind someone did for you this week?

21

What is something you could teach someone at this table?

22

What do you like best about this time of year?

Joke!

What is a turkey's favorite dessert?

Peach gobbler!

Joke!

Which side of a turkey has the most feathers?

The outside!

With Peko Pal, kids print pages like this themselves.

A screen-free first device, before the phone. pekopal.com