WHEREAS, the Collaborative Law Association of Southwestern Pennsylvania (CLASP) is a dedicated group of collaboratively trained attorneys, mental health professionals and financial specialists committed to helping families navigate divorce & separation with dignity, respect and privacy; and,

WHEREAS, the Collaborative's process provides a client-centered approach that prioritizes the well-being of families and children by fostering cooperative, transparent and mutually agreeable settlements rather than adversarial court battles; and,

WHEREAS, Divorce with Respect Week is a national movement, held from March 1- 8, 2026, aimed at educating the public about legal alternatives to courtroom litigation, specifically focusing on the collaborative divorce process. During this week, members of CLASP will offer 30- minute free divorce consultations to Pittsburgh area residents - to help them explore options that protect their financial resources and minimize emotional trauma; and,

WHEREAS, this initiative aligns directly with the City of Pittsburgh's commitment to supporting the health, stability and well-being of our residents & their families during challenging life transitions and,

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby declare March 1st - 8th, 2026, to be "Divorce with Respect Week" in the City of Pittsburgh.
