WHEREAS, Jonathan Mollett, is the founder and creative mind behind Dream Shots Media and has made a major impact on the community. He has hosted youth football leagues and organized youth all-star games - bringing together top athletes from different neighborhoods and backgrounds; and

WHEREAS, Jonathan was born in Pittsburgh, in 1997 and raised in Homewood. He discovered his passion for graphic design in 2012 and spent his high school years teaching himself and growing his creative skills. After graduating from Woodland Hills High School, he turned that passion into a purpose by creating his own media company; and

WHEREAS, Dream Shots Media will celebrate its 10-year anniversary on July 15, 2026. Through tireless effort & diligence - Jonathan has built a platform focused on telling the stories of athletes before the spotlight. His work in photography, videography and original content has generated over 5 million views on YouTube and earned recognition from major platforms like ESPN, Sports Center, HBO and Overtime. He has also collaborated with organizations such as NFL FLAG and the Pittsburgh Steelers Youth Department, helping to bring more attention to grassroots football; and

WHEREAS, his work has also helped spark a rise in media presence across youth sports, inspiring more photographers, videographers and creators to get involved. What once had limited coverage - now has growing attention & is giving young athletes more opportunities to be seen and celebrated; and

WHEREAS, driven by a mission to unite and inspire, Jonathan continues to build bridges through sports and storytelling, impacting not just athletes, but an entire generation of creatives who now see the camera as a pathway to success just as much as the game itself; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby congratulate Jonathan Mollett on his 10-year anniversary & declare July 15, 2026, to be "Dream Shots Media Day" in the City of Pittsburgh.
