

Alternative JOBS

What other job would you like to attempt?

They may be industry stars today, but many of our PharmaVOICE 100 discuss what they would have liked to pursue.

- ① John F. Crowley
② Dr. Evan Demestihis would like to have been astronauts.

- ① Mark Penniston
② Steve Powell
③ Bhaskar Sambasivan
aspire to be architects.

Justin Jones
would like to try to be an official water slide tester.

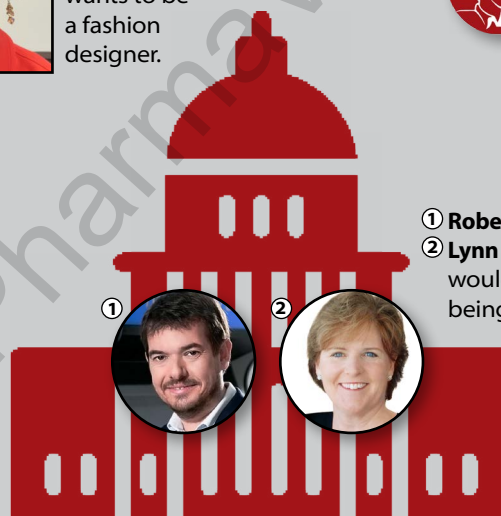

Steve Gens
would like to work in the National Park Service.

Quita Highsmith
wants to be a fashion designer.

John Lopos
would like to be a luthier.

- ① Roberto Ascione
② Lynn O'Connor Vos
would like to attempt being politicians.

Dr. Kenneth Koblan wants to make furniture.

Sharon Callahan
wants to flip houses.

Dr. Ryan Cohlhepp
would like to work as a chef.

Nancy Berg
would like to work as a lawyer.

Bill Drummy
would like to attempt being a novelistic photographer.

- ① Al Altomari
② Danielle Bedard
③ Dr. Keith Bradley
④ Eric Delente
⑤ Joe DePinto
⑥ Jesse Johanson
⑦ Andreas Koester would love to teach.

Mark Finn
would love to attempt to be a food scientist.

Is your patient support program really supporting your patients?

Making sure patients have access to the medication they need is an important first step toward achieving successful outcomes. But giving patients the support they need to be successful is where the real work begins. We are uniquely positioned to do both.

Stronger connections – more engaged patients

Scott Dulitz
Vice President
TC Market Access
scott.dulitz@trialcard.com
919-415-3232

TC  Market Access
a division of trialcard

tcmarketaccess.com

PURVEYORS OF FINE STORY

FIRST WE CRAFT YOUR STORY, THEN WE PACKAGE IT WITH INTENSITY

HealthWellCrafted.com

REVERENCE COMES IN DIFFERENT DECIBELS

PALIO
INVENTIV HEALTH