

▶ Coming ATTRACTIONS

THE 13TH ANNUAL EPHARMA conference, Feb. 10-12, New York Marriott Marquis, brings three days of strategic and tactical learning, peer exchange, and dialogue that actively dissects current trends, marketplace needs, evolving customer bases, and explains how to harness these new opportunities to build stronger, cost-efficient marketing campaigns.

At ePharma 2014, attendees will learn best practices to successfully engage the full spectrum of HCPs, including RNs, PAs, and pharmacists by discovering (then delivering) what they want — and need — from pharma; leverage potential new marketing channels like EHRs and walk-in clinics; capitalize on opportunities afforded by the ACA; crystalize new strategies that drive results throughout a product's lifecycle — prelaunch through LOE; and effectively implement hyper-targeting and segmentation by redefining the role of sales forces.

Additionally, game-changing case studies and in-depth panels will focus on non-personal promotion, content creation, SEM/SEO, mobile, social and more.

Why Attending WCBF 2014

- Develop strategic partnerships with leading Bio-tech players
- Leverage the latest advancements in Biosimilars technology to enhance quality
- Establish the right regulatory strategy to speed up Biosimilars registration process
- Explore the differentiation strategy to stand out from fierce competition
- Understand the key factors in the product lifecycle those determining the final commercial returns
- Build upon new partnering model that mitigate portfolio risk
- Learn the cutting-edge product development techniques through practical case studies
- Master key factors affecting Biosimilar's comparability and quality

Exciting Sessions

- ◆ EMA biosimilars guidelines interpretation from authority
- ◆ US biosimilars regulations' progress update
- ◆ Sandoz's biosimilars development and commercialization
- ◆ Livzon Mabpharm's case sharing of developing mAbs in China
