Vishnu is the Supreme God of Vaishnavism and one of the three supreme deities (Trimurti) of Hinduism. He is also known as Narayana and Hari. He is conceived as “the Preserver or the Protector” within the Trimurti, the Hindu Trinity of the divinity.

A complex character, Vishnu is the Preserver and guardian of men (Narayana), he protects the order of things (dharma) and, when necessary, he appears on earth in various incarnations or avatars to fight demons and fierce creatures and so maintain cosmic harmony.

Vishnu represents Sattvaguna and is the centripetal force as it were, responsible for sustenance, protection and maintenance of the created universe.

Etymologically speaking, the word ‘Vishnu’ means ‘one who pervades, one who has entered into everything.’ So, he is the transcendent as well the immanent reality of the universe. He is the inner cause and power by which things exist.

Vamana Avatar, the 5th incarnation of Vishnu( in order to curb the pride of Asura King Bali and restore the kingdom back to Devas) is said to have taken place on Shravana Nakshatra and also on the 12th Dwadasi day of Shukla Paksha, the waxing Moon phase in the month of Bhadrapada (August–September). This is celebrated as Vamana Jayanthi or Vamana Dwadasi, when people offer special worships to him, seeking relief from sufferings and praying for salvation.
