Ganesh or Vinayaka (Ganapathi, Pillaiyar) is one of the best known and loved deities in the Hindu pantheon of gods,. He is the Lord of Good Fortune who provides prosperity, and success. He is the Lord of Beginnings and the Remover of Obstacles of both material and spiritual kinds.

Interestingly, he also places obstacles in the path of those who need to be checked. His image is found everywhere, in many different forms, and he is invoked before the undertaking of any task. Ganesh is also associated with the first Chakra, or energy wheel, which underpins all of the other Chakras and represents conservation, survival and material well-being. He is considered to be a patron of the arts and sciences and of letters. Devotees believe that if Ganesha is worshiped, he grants success, prosperity and protection against adversity.
