Agile methodology

The old way: Waterfall methodology

A few problems:

- You have to finish each stage before moving on to the next
- When innovating, it's unlikely to get things right from the beginning
- Once you're deep into the project, it's hard to pivot

The new way: Agile methodology

Agile projects are 28% more successful than traditional projects.

What does this mean
for market research?

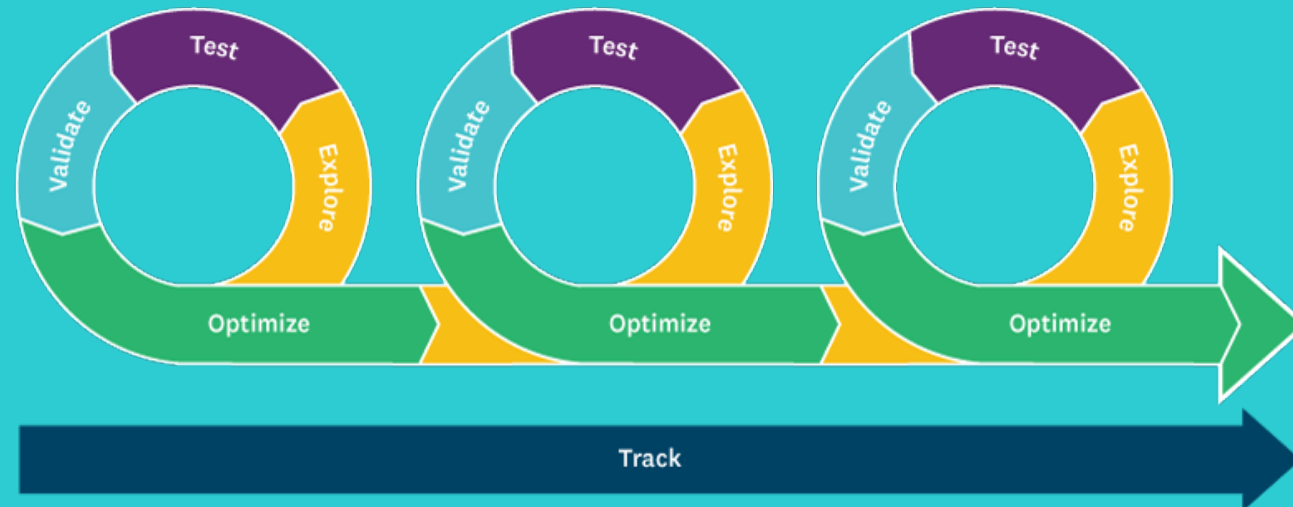

We can borrow agile frameworks

Agile Software Development Framework

Agile \neq agility

THE AGILE MANIFESTO - 12 PRINCIPLES

1. Our highest priority is to satisfy the customer through early and continuous delivery of valuable software.
2. Welcome changing requirements, even late in development. Agile processes harness change for the customer's competitive advantage.
3. Deliver working software frequently, from a couple of weeks to a couple of months, with a preference to the shorter timescale.
4. Business people and developers must work together daily throughout the project.
5. Build projects around motivated individuals. Give them the environment and support they need, and trust them to get the job done.
6. The most efficient and effective method of conveying information to and within a development team is face-to-face conversation.
7. Working software is the primary measure of progress.
8. Agile processes promote sustainable development. The sponsors, developers, and users should be able to maintain a constant pace indefinitely.
9. Continuous attention to technical excellence and good design enhances agility.
10. Simplicity--the art of maximizing the amount of work not done--is essential.
11. The best architectures, requirements, and designs emerge from self-organizing teams.
12. At regular intervals, the team reflects on how to become more effective, then tunes and adjusts its behavior accordingly.

Five agile market research principles

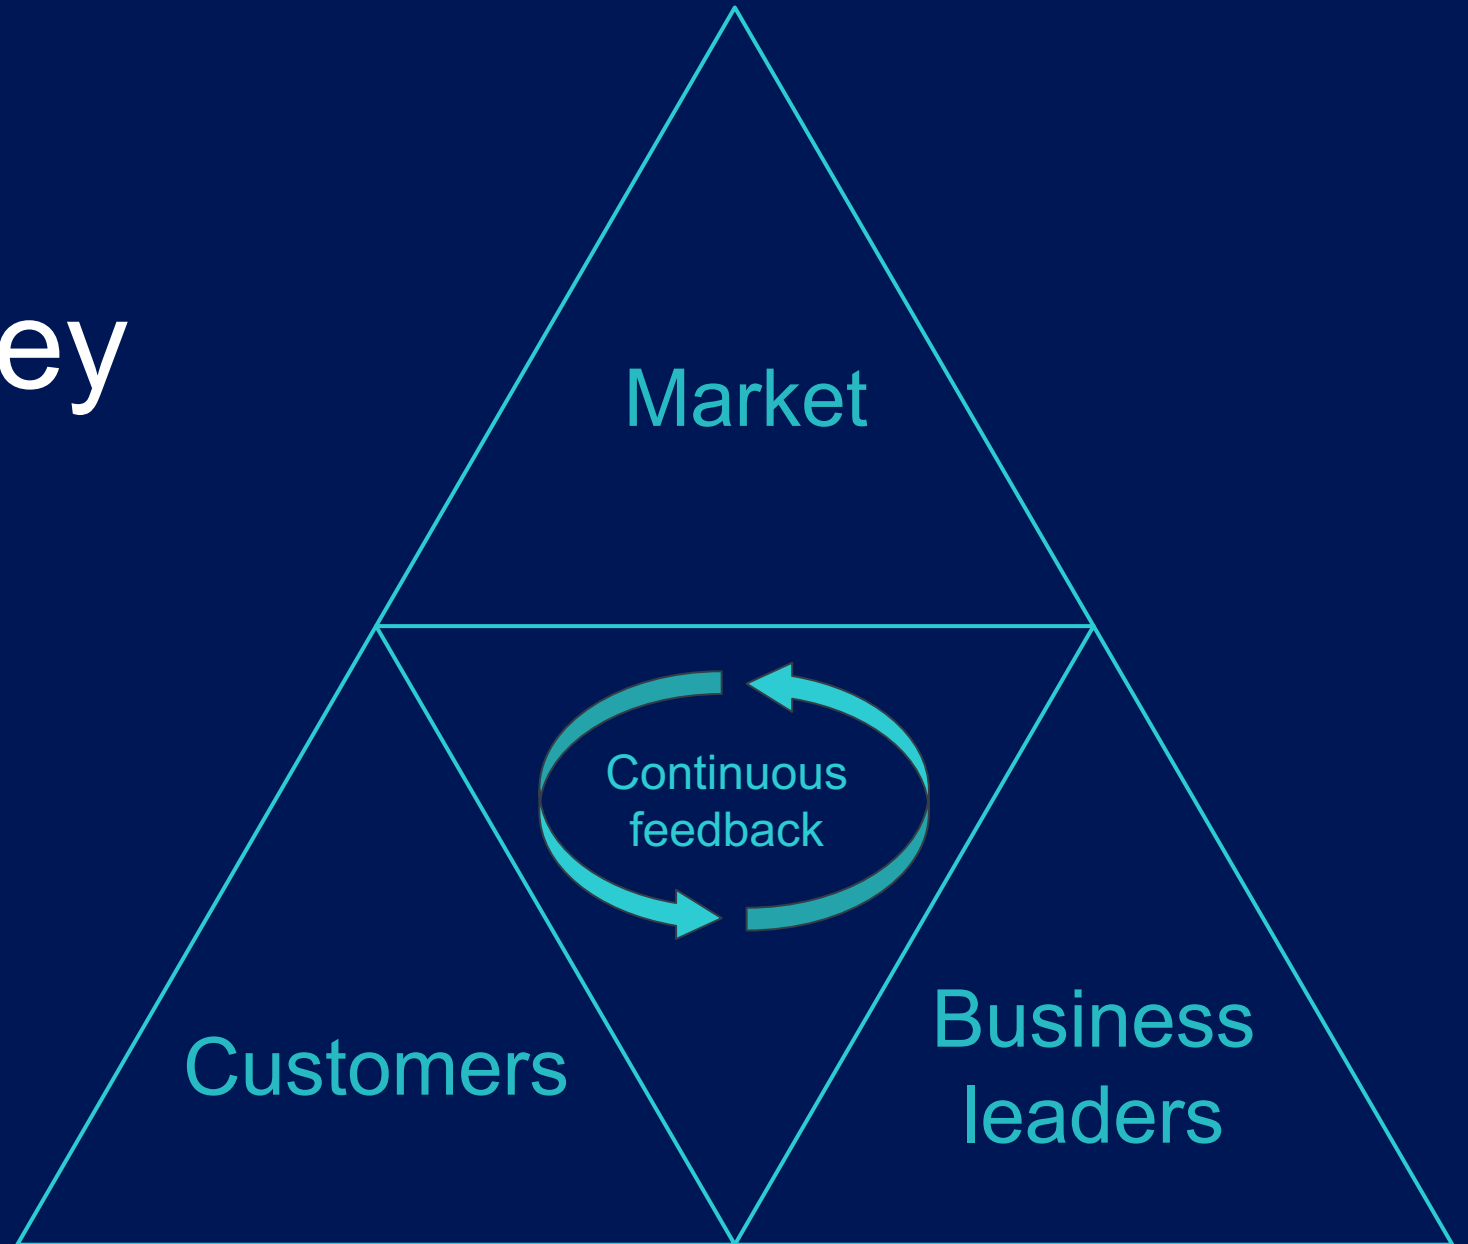

- 1 Establish feedback loops
- 2 Deliver faster and more frequently
- 3 Welcome changes in scope
- 4 Build a foundation of good research design
- 5 Regularly reflect on how to improve

Principle 1

Establish feedback loops

Engage three key constituents

HELIX SLEEP

Helix Sleep used an iterative approach to market research when developing their latest product: the Helix Pillow.

They got feedback and validation at each step:

- Consumer demand
- Feature prioritization
- Product testing
- Willingness to pay

DIY survey platforms enable fast, iterative market feedback

The screenshot displays the Audience survey platform interface. At the top, the Audience logo is visible. The main content is divided into two steps and a pricing summary.

STEP 1: Who do you want to survey? (Total Cost: $0.00)

- Country: United States (Region: All regions)
- Gender: Both (Balancing: Basic Census)
- Age: 18-100+ (Balancing: Basic Census)
- Household Income: $0k-$200k

STEP 2: How many responses do you need? (Total Cost: $1.00)

Number of responses: 400 (Slider range: 50 to 5,000)

Margin of Error: +6%

Summary Table:

| | |
|--|-------------------|
| Total Cost | $800 USD |
| Complete Responses | 400 |
| Price Per Response | $2.00 |
| 15 Survey Questions | $1.00 |
| 10 Questions + 5 Row Matrix | - |
| Targeting Options | - |
| Qualification Rate: 100% | $0.00 |
| Express Delivery | $1.00 |

Principle 2

Deliver faster and more frequently

56%

of companies have continued demand for market research but face limited or shrinking budgets.

CULTURE REPUBLIC™

Unilever took on an entrepreneurial spirit when they developed their new brand: Culture Republic.

Their small development team used an agile approach to quickly test flavor names and ingredient combinations with a broad survey panel using SurveyMonkey Audience.

Principle 3

Welcome changes
in scope

Your reaction, probably.

The old way: Waterfall methodology

Agile reduces risk

Principle 4

Build a foundation of good research design

Templates and frameworks boost agility

Principle 5

Regularly reflect on how to improve

People > Process

50% of team members are motivated more by team success than by company (27%) or individual (23%) success.

The screenshot displays the Audience survey creation interface, which is divided into several sections:

- Header: The Audience logo is positioned in the top left corner of the interface.
- STEP 1: Who do you want to survey? This section is priced at $0.00 and includes four targeting criteria:
 - Country: United States, Region: All regions.
 - Gender: Both, Balancing: Basic Census.
 - Age: 18-100+, Balancing: Basic Census.
 - Household Income: $0k-$200k.A "MORE TARGETING OPTIONS" button is located below these criteria.
- STEP 2: How many responses do you need? This section is priced at $1.00 and features a slider ranging from 50 to 5,000. The value 400 is selected and displayed in a green box above the slider. Below the slider, it states "Margin of Error +6%".
- Summary and Pricing: Located on the right side, it shows:
 - Total Cost: $800 USD.
 - Complete Responses: 400.
 - Price Per Response: $2.00.
 - 15 Survey Questions: $1.00 (including 10 Questions + 5 Row Matrix).
 - Targeting Options: $0.00.
 - Qualification Rate: 100% ($0.00).
 - Express Delivery: $1.00.
 - Estimated Completion Date: July 19.
 - Express Delivery: A toggle switch is turned on, with the text "Add express delivery Get it by July 17".
 - CTA: A yellow button labeled "REVIEW YOUR ORDER & PURCHASE".
