

Figure S2: Ranges size and projected range loss. The relationship between current geographic range size (based on refined extent of occurrence maps) and projected range transformation (combined climate change and land-use change) by 2100 across socioeconomic scenarios. Each data point refers to one species.