S2 Fig. Genetic principal component analysis (PCA) results: A) Distribution of the first 20 PCs and B) PC1 against PC2. The genetic principal components were calculated based on the individual genetic information. The PC1 could explain 0.103% of genetic variations within the LURIC cohort and the PC2 could explain 0.0674% of genetic variation within the LURIC cohort.