

Yolanda Ceballos

Yolanda Ceballos is a multidisciplinary artist working and living in between places. She works with materials that change over time like concrete, water, scent, memory, and her own body. Her work is a document that intersects between architecture, science, and philosophy. It reflects on the cyclical and repetitive nature of existence and the exploration of the unconscious mind.