We act as accountants for Block Code Ltd.

Haggards Crowther has been provided with access to Plutus' proprietary transaction data in support of the historic data used in Plutus Whitepaper 2024, and Tokenomics Financial Model.

We have conducted a comprehensive verification of the historical data used in the financial modelling of the new Tokenomics Financial Model provided by Block Code Ltd. Additionally, we have reviewed the accompanying Whitepaper.

We hereby confirm that the data employed in this Tokenomics Financial Model and in the Whitepaper is derived from historical customer records and transactions, sourced directly from the Plutus Database.

Haggards Crowther was not engaged to review or assess the financial viability of the ten-year forecasts provided in the Tokenomics Financial Model. Consequently, we accept no liability whatsoever for the methodology used in preparing the financial forecasts or its feasibility.

Yours faithfully,
