II. UNIVERSITY POLICY STATEMENT

Eastern Michigan University is an institution built upon honor, integrity, trust, and respect. Consistent with these values, the University is committed to providing a safe and non-discriminatory learning, living, and working environment. The University does not discriminate on the basis of sex or gender in any of its education or employment programs and activities. To that end, this policy prohibits specific forms of behavior that violate Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (“Title IX”); Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (“Title VII”); and Michigan’s Elliott-Larsen Civil Rights Act. The University also addresses such behavior pursuant to its obligations under the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (“Clery Act”), as amended by the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2022 (“VAWA”).

The University prohibits Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Stalking, Sexual Exploitation and Gender-Based Harassment, which are collectively referred to as “Prohibited Conduct.”<sup>1</sup> Retaliation against a person for good faith reporting of Prohibited Conduct or participation in any investigation or proceeding under this Policy is also a form of Prohibited Conduct.

The University will take prompt and equitable action to eliminate Prohibited Conduct, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects. The University conducts ongoing prevention, awareness, and training programs for Employees and Students to facilitate the goals of this policy.

A Student or Employee determined by the University to have committed an act of Prohibited Conduct may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including separation from the University. Third Parties who commit University Prohibited Conduct may have their relationships with the University terminated and/or their privileges of being on University premises withdrawn.

<sup>1</sup> “Prohibited Conduct” is broken down into two separate categories: (1) Prohibited Conduct Under Title IX, which is defined and described in Section IV of this Policy, and (2) Other University-Prohibited Conduct, which is defined and described in Section V of this Policy.

BOR 03.07.07 Eastern Michigan University: Sexual Misconduct and Sex-based Discrimination Policy

Where the date of the Prohibited Conduct precedes the effective date of this policy, the University's definitions of prohibited conduct in existence at the time of the alleged incident(s) will be used. The procedures under this policy, however, may be used to investigate and resolve all reports made on or after the effective date of this policy, regardless of when the incident(s) occurred.

III. SCOPE OF POLICY

A. To Whom This Policy Applies. This policy is applicable to Students, Employees, and Third Parties.

1. "Student" includes any person who meets any of the following criteria:
  - a) is enrolled in any number of courses, in any format at EMU; or
  - b) Is not officially enrolled for a particular term, but who has enrolled or taken classes at the University in any of the last six terms/semesters, and has not received a confirmed degree from EMU.
2. "Employee" includes all persons who are legally defined as employees of the University.
3. "Third Parties" includes all contractors, vendors, visitors, guests or any others, including minors, as determined by the University.

Only Students, Employees, and Third Parties who are participating in, or attempting to participate in, the University's education programs or activities at the time of filing are permitted to file a Formal Complaint. The University's ability to take appropriate corrective action against a Third Party will be determined by the nature of the relationship of the Third Party to the University. The Title IX Coordinator will work with the parties to determine the appropriate manner of resolution consistent with the University's commitment to a prompt and equitable process consistent with federal and state law, federal guidance, and this policy.

Where the Respondent is not a University Student or Employee, or a participant in any University related program or activity, the University's ability to take action may be limited.

B. When and Where This Policy Applies. This policy pertains to acts of Prohibited Conduct committed by or against Students, Employees and Third Parties when:

1. the conduct occurs at locations, events, or under circumstances over which the University exercises substantial control over both the Respondent and the context in which the Prohibited Conduct occurs.
2. the conduct occurs on campus or other property owned or controlled by the University;
3. the conduct occurs in the context of a University employment or education program or activity, including, but not limited to, both on-campus and on-line classes, research, or internship programs; or
4. the conduct occurs in an off-campus building owned or controlled by a student organization officially recognized by the University, such as a building owned by a recognized fraternity or sorority.

Conduct that occurs outside the context of University employment or a University education program or activity, or, did not occur against a person in the United States, but has continuing adverse effects for Students, Employees or Third Parties while on campus or other property owned or controlled by the University or in any University employment or education program or activity may also be covered under this Policy. Such conduct would not be Prohibited Conduct Under title IX (as defined in Section IV) but may be Other University-Prohibited Conduct (as defined in Section V).

BOR 03.07.07 Eastern Michigan University: Sexual Misconduct and Sex-based Discrimination Policy

- C. Intersection with Other Policies. The University's Office of Diversity and Affirmative Action (ODAA) administers separate policies (EEO/Affirmative Action and Civil Rights) that address discrimination and harassment not covered by this Policy. Where Prohibited Conduct violates this Policy and also violates other University policies, the University's response will be governed by this Policy. Questions about which policy applies in a specific instance should be directed to the University's Title IX Coordinator. In addition, conduct may be inappropriate, but not a violation of this Policy. Such conduct will be reviewed by the Title IX Coordinator and may be addressed through other appropriate processes (e.g. administrative actions, collective bargaining agreements, student conduct proceedings, or others).

IV. DEFINITIONS OF PROHIBITED CONDUCT UNDER TITLE IX:

The Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights (OCR), the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), and the State of Michigan regard Sexual Harassment, a specific form of discriminatory harassment, as an unlawful discriminatory practice.

EMU has adopted the following definition of Sexual Harassment in order to address the unique environment of an academic community. Acts of sexual harassment may be committed by any person upon any other person, regardless of the sex, sexual orientation, and/or gender identity of those involved.

- A. Sexual Harassment. "Sexual harassment", as an umbrella category, includes the offenses of sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Sexual harassment is conduct on the basis of sex/gender or that is sexual that satisfies one or more of the following criteria.
1. Hostile Environment Sexual Harassment under Title IX is unwelcome<sup>2</sup> conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, and pervasive, and, objectively offensive, that it effectively denies a person equal access to an EMU education program or activity.

Other forms of hostile environment sexual harassment may be addressed as Other University-Prohibited Conduct under Section V below.
  2. Quid Pro Quo Sexual Harassment is when an EMU Employee conditions the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of EMU, on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct.
  3. Sexual Assault is any sexual act<sup>3</sup> directed against another person, without the consent of the Complainant<sup>4</sup>, including instances where the Complainant is incapable of giving consent. Sexual Contact includes touching of the breasts, buttocks, groin or genitals, whether clothed or unclothed, or intentionally touching another with any of these body parts, and /or making another touch you or themselves with or on any of these body parts.

<sup>2</sup> Unwelcomeness is subjective and determined by the Complainant (except when the Complainant is younger than the age of consent). Severity, pervasiveness, and objective offensiveness are evaluated based on the totality of the circumstances from the perspective of a reasonable person in the same or similar circumstances ("in the shoes of the Complainant"), including the context in which the alleged incident occurred and any similar, previous patterns that may be evidenced.

<sup>3</sup> A 'sexual act' is specifically defined by federal regulations to include one or more of the following: (1) forcible rape; (2) forcible sodomy; (3) sexual assault with an object; (4) forcible fondling; (5) incest; (6) statutory rape. Each of these six sexual acts are defined in Section VI of this of this Policy.

<sup>4</sup> For purposes of this Policy, the individual who is reported to have experienced Prohibited Conduct, regardless of whether that individual makes a report or participates in the review of that report by the University, is referred to as the Complainant. The individual who is reported to have engaged in Prohibited Conduct is referred to as the Respondent.

BOR 03.07.07 Eastern Michigan University: Sexual Misconduct and Sex-based Discrimination Policy

4. Domestic Violence is violence constituting a misdemeanor or felony, committed on the basis of sex, committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the Complainant, by a person with whom the Complainant shares a child in common, or by a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the Complainant under the domestic or family violence laws of the State of Michigan.
5. Dating Violence is violence, on the basis of sex, committed by a person, who is in or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the Complainant. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the Complainant's statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. For the purposes of this definition: Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse. Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.
6. Stalking occurs when a person engages in a course of conduct on the basis of sex, directed at a specific person under circumstances that would cause a reasonable person to fear bodily injury or to experience substantial emotional distress. Course of Conduct means two or more acts, including but not limited to acts in which a person directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about another person, or interferes with another person's property. Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish. Stalking includes "cyber-stalking," a particular form of stalking in which a person uses electronic media, such as the internet, social networks, blogs, cell phones, texts, or other similar devices or forms of contact.

B. Sex-Based Discrimination includes harassment based on sex or non-conformity to sex stereotypes, specifically on the basis of being a male or female, which may include acts of aggression, intimidation, or hostility, whether verbal or non-verbal, graphic, physical, or otherwise, even if the acts do not involve conduct of a sexual nature. Such conduct creates a hostile environment. A "hostile environment" exists when the conduct is sufficiently severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that is unreasonably interferes with, limits, or deprives an individual from participating in or benefiting from the University's education or employment programs and/or activities. In evaluating whether a hostile environment exists, the University will consider the totality of know circumstances, including, but not limited to:

1. The frequency, nature, severity, location, duration and context of the conduct; and
2. Whether the conduct implicates concerns related to academic freedom or protected speech.

A hostile environment can be created by persistent or pervasive conduct or by a single or isolated incident, if sufficiently severe. The more severe the conduct, the less need there is to show a repetitive series of incidents to prove a hostile environment, particularly if the conduct is physical. A single incident of Sexual Assault, for example, may be sufficiently severe to constitute a hostile environment. In contrast, the perceived offensiveness of a single verbal or written expression, standing alone, is typically not sufficient to constitute a hostile environment.

C. Pregnancy Discrimination is harassment, based on sex, because of pregnancy or related conditions. Comments that constitute prohibited harassment include making sexual comments or jokes about an individual's pregnancy, calling an individual sexually charged names, spreading rumors about an individual's sexual activity, and making sexual propositions or gestures, if the comments are sufficiently serious that it interferes with an individual's ability to benefit from or participate in their school's program or activities.

D. Retaliation. "Retaliation" means any adverse action taken against a person for making a good faith report of Prohibited Conduct or participating in any proceeding under this Policy. Retaliation includes threatening, intimidating, harassing, coercing or any other conduct that would discourage a reasonable person from engaging in the processes contained in this policy. Retaliation may be present even where there is a finding of “no responsibility” on the allegations of Prohibited Conduct. A good faith pursuit by either party of civil, criminal or other legal action, even in response to an initial report under this Policy, does not constitute retaliation. Acts of alleged retaliation should be reported immediately to the Title IX Coordinator and will be promptly investigated. Intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination, including charges against an individual for Code of Community Responsibility violations that do not involve sex discrimination or sexual harassment, but arise out of the same facts or circumstances as a report or complaint of sex discrimination, or a report or formal complaint of sexual harassment, for the purpose of interfering with a right or privilege secured by Title IX or this part, constitutes retaliation.

EMU will take all appropriate and available steps to protect individuals who fear that they may be subjected to retaliation. Filing a complaint may be considered retaliation if it is intentionally dishonest, filed for retaliatory reasons, or intended to cause harm to a complainant or reporter.<sup>5</sup> Therefore, EMU vets all complaints carefully to ensure this does not happen, and to assure that complaints are tracked to the appropriate process.

The exercise of rights protected under the First Amendment does not constitute retaliation.

Conduct in violation of EMU Board Policy 3.1.8 may also be considered a violation of this Policy.

EMU reserves the right to impose any level of sanction, ranging from a reprimand up to and including suspension or expulsion/termination, for any offense under this policy

V. OTHER UNIVERSITY-PROHIBITED CONDUCT

EMU prohibits conduct in addition to the forms of Prohibited Conduct described above. These forms of Other University-Prohibited Conduct are described as follows:

- A. Sexual Harassment, as defined in Section IV above, when the conduct occurs outside the context of University employment or a University education program or activity, or, did not occur against a person in the United States, but has continuing adverse effects for Students, Employees, or Third Parties while on campus or other property owned or controlled by the University or in any University employment or education program or activity.

- B. Hostile Environment Sexual Harassment is any unwelcome sexual advance, request for sexual favors, or other unwanted conduct of a sexual nature, whether verbal, non-verbal, graphic, physical, or otherwise, when the conduct is sufficiently severe, persistent, or pervasive that it unreasonably interferes with, limits, or deprives an individual from participating in or benefiting from the University’s education or employment programs and/or activities. Conduct must be deemed severe, persistent, or pervasive from both a subjective and an objective perspective. In evaluating whether a hostile environment exists, the University will consider the totality of known circumstances, including, but not limited to:
  - 1. the frequency, nature, severity, location, duration and contest of the conduct;
  - 2. whether the conduct implicates concerns related to academic freedom or protected speech.

<sup>5</sup> Charging an individual with a Code of Community Responsibility violation for making a materially false statement in bad faith in the course of a grievance proceeding under this policy and procedure does not constitute retaliation, provided that a determination regarding responsibility, alone, is not sufficient to conclude that any party has made a materially false statement in bad faith.

BOR 03.07.07 Eastern Michigan University: Sexual Misconduct and Sex-based Discrimination Policy

A hostile environment can be created by persisted or pervasive conduct or by a single or isolated incident, if sufficiently severe. The more severe the conduct, the less need there is to show a repetitive series of incidents to provide a hostile environment, particularly if the conduct is physical. A single of incident of Sexual Assault, for example, may be sufficiently sever to constitute a hostile environment. In contrast, the perceived offensiveness of a single verbal or written expression, standing a lone, is typically not sufficient to constitute a hostile environment.

C. Sexual Exploitation is taking or attempting to take non-consensual or abuse sexual advantage of another for one's own advantage or benefit, or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the person being exploited.<sup>6</sup> Examples include:

1. causing the incapacitation of another person (through alcohol, drugs, or any other means) for the purpose of compromising that persons' ability to give Consent to sexual activity.
2. allowing third parties to observe private sexual activity from a hidden location (e.g., closet) or through electronic means (e.g., live streaming of images) without the consent of all subjects or participants;
3. engaging in voyeurism (e.g., watching private sexual activity without the consent of all participants or viewing another person's intimate parts (including genitalia, groin, breasts or buttocks) in a place where that person would have a reasonable expectation of privacy;
4. recording or photographing private sexual activity and/or a person's intimate parts without the consent of all subjects or participants;
5. disseminating or posting images of private sexual activity and/or a person's intimate parts without the consent of all subjects or participants;
6. prostituting another person; or
7. knowingly exposing another person to certain sexually transmitted infection or virus without the other's knowledge.

D. Hazing Misconduct. The Eastern Michigan University Sexual Misconduct Prevention & Response Office specifically oversees any potential acts of hazing that include willful acts, with or without the consent of the individual involved provided the act is derived from or contains a sexual act.

The Dean of Students Office or their designee will address any other allegations related to hazing should they not be derived from or contain a sexual act.

E. Gender-Based Harassment includes harassment based on gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression, which may include acts of aggression, intimidation, or hostility, whether verbal or non-verbal, graphic, physical, or otherwise, even if the acts do not involve conduct of a sexual nature. Such conduct creates a hostile environment. A "hostile environment" exists when the conduct is sufficiently severe, pervasive, or objectively offensive that is unreasonably interferes with, limits, or deprives an individual from participating in or benefiting from the University's education or employment programs and/or activities. Conduct must be deemed severe, pervasive or objectively offensive. In evaluating whether a hostile environment exists, the University will consider the totality of know circumstances, including, but not limited to:

<sup>6</sup> Sexual Exploitation can be a form of Sexual Harassment, and thus can be Prohibited Conduct as described under Section IV above, if it is unwelcome and so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive such that it effectively denies equal access to the University's education programs or activities.

BOR 03.07.07 Eastern Michigan University: Sexual Misconduct and Sex-based Discrimination Policy

1. The frequency, nature, severity, location, duration and context of the conduct; and
2. Whether the conduct implicates concerns related to academic freedom or protected speech.

A hostile environment can be created by persistent or pervasive conduct or by a single or isolated incident, if sufficiently severe. The more severe the conduct, the less need there is to show a repetitive series of incidents to prove a hostile environment, particularly if the conduct is physical. A single incident of Sexual Assault, for example, may be sufficiently severe to constitute a hostile environment. In contrast, the perceived offensiveness of a single verbal or written expression, standing alone, is typically not sufficient to constitute a hostile environment.

VI. ADDITIONAL DEFINITIONS

The following definitions shall be used for purposes of this Policy.

- A. Consent is (a) informed (knowing); (b) voluntary (freely given); and (c) clearly communicated, through the demonstration of clear words or actions a person has indicated willingness to engage in a particular form of sexual activity. Consent cannot be gained by force or coercion. An incapacitated individual cannot consent to sexual activity.

Consent cannot be gained by taking advantage of the incapacitation of another, where the person initiating sexual activity knew or reasonably should have known that the other was incapacitated.

- B. Incapacitation. A person who is incapacitated is unable, temporarily or permanently, to give Consent because of physical helplessness, sleep, unconsciousness, or lack of awareness that sexual activity is taking place. A person may be incapacitated as a result of the consumption of alcohol or other drugs, or due to a temporary or permanent physical or mental health condition.

When alcohol or other drugs are involved, it is important to understand the level of impairment that results from a person's level of consumption. The impact of alcohol and other drugs varies from person to person, and a person's level of impairment can change quickly over time. A person's level of impairment is not always demonstrated by objective signs; however, some signs of intoxication may include clumsiness, difficulty walking, poor judgement, difficulty concentrating, slurred speech, vomiting, combativeness, or emotional volatility.

Evaluating whether another individual is incapacitated requires an assessment of whether the consumption of alcohol or other drugs has rendered that individual physically helpless or substantially incapable of either (a) making decisions about whether to engage in sexual contact or sexual intercourse; or (b) communicating Consent to sexual contact or sexual contact or sexual intercourse.

In evaluating Consent where the question of incapacitation is at issue, the University asks two questions: (1) did the person initiating sexual activity know that the other party was incapacitated, and if not, (2) should a sober, reasonable person, in the same situation, have known that the other party was incapacitated? If the answer to either question is yes, then there has not been consent.

One should be cautious before engaging in Sexual Contact or Sexual Intercourse when either party has been drinking alcohol or using other drugs. The introduction of alcohol or other drugs may create ambiguity for either party as to whether consent has been sought or given. If one has doubt about either party's ability to give consent, the safe thing to do is to forego all sexual activity.

Additional guidance about Consent and Incapacitation:

BOR 03.07.07 Eastern Michigan University: Sexual Misconduct and Sex-based Discrimination Policy

1. A person who initiates a specific sexual activity is responsible for obtaining Consent for that activity.
2. Consent is not to be inferred from silence, passivity, or a lack of resistance, and relying on non-verbal communication alone may not be sufficient to ascertain Consent.
3. Consent is not to be inferred from an existing or previous dating or sexual relationship. Even in the context of a relationship, there must be mutual Consent to engage in any sexual activity.
4. Consent to engage in one sexual activity is not Consent to engage in a different sexual activity or to engage in the same sexual activity on a later occasion.
5. Consent to engage in sexual activity with one person is not Consent to engage in sexual activity with any other person.
6. Consent can be withdrawn by either party at any point. Once Consent is withdrawn, the sexual activity must cease immediately.

Proof of consent or non-consent is not a burden placed on either party involved in an incident. Instead, the burden remains on EMU to determine whether its policy has been violated. The existence of consent is based on the totality of the circumstances evaluated from the perspective of a reasonable person in the same or similar circumstances, including the context in which the alleged incident occurred and any similar, previous patterns that may be evidenced.

Conduct under this policy is prohibited regardless of the sex. Being impaired by alcohol or other drugs does not excuse a Respondent from responsibility for committing Prohibited Conduct that violates this policy.

C. Force is the use of physical violence and/or physical imposition to gain sexual access. Force also includes threats, intimidation (implied threats), and coercion that is intended to overcome resistance or produce consent.

Sexual activity that is forced is, by definition, non-consensual sexual activity is not necessarily forced. Silence or the absence of resistance alone is not consent. Consent is not demonstrated by the absence of resistance. While resistance is not required or necessary, it is a clear demonstration of non-consent.

D. Coercion is conduct, including intimidation and express or implied threats of immediate or future physical, emotional, reputational, financial, or other harm to the Complainant or others, that would reasonably place an individual in fear and that is employed to compel someone to engage in sexual activity. Coercive conduct differs from seductive conduct based on factors such as the type and/or extent of the pressure used to obtain consent. When someone makes it clear that they do not want to engage in certain sexual activity, that they want to stop, or that they do not want to go past a certain point of sexual interaction, continued pressure beyond that point can be coercive.

E. Forcible Rape is penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the Complainant.

F. Forcible Sodomy is oral and anal sexual intercourse with another person, forcibly and/or against that person's will or not forcibly or against the person's will (non-consensually) in instances where the Complainant is incapable of giving consent because of age or because of temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

G. Sexual Assault with an Object – To use an object or instrument to penetrate, however slightly, the genital or anal opening of the body of another person, forcibly and/or against that person's will or not forcibly or against that person's will (non-consensually) in instances where the Complainant is incapable of giving consent because of age or because of temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

H. Forcible Fondling is the touching of the private body parts of another person (buttocks, groin, breasts) for the purpose of sexual gratification, forcibly and/or against that person's will (non-consensually) or not forcibly or against the person's will in instances where the Complainant is incapable of giving consent because of age or because of temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

BOR 03.07.07 Eastern Michigan University: Sexual Misconduct and Sex-based Discrimination Policy

- I. Incest is non-forcible sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by Michigan law.
- J. Statutory Rape is non-forcible sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent of 16 years in the state of Michigan.
- K. Complainant means an individual who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute harassment or discrimination based on a protected class; or retaliation for engaging in a protected activity.
- L. Respondent is any individual(s) or organization(s) alleged to have violated this Policy and against whom a complaint has been brought to the attention of the University.
- M. Parties includes the Complainant(s) and Respondent(s), collectively.
- N. Formal Complaint refers to a document filed by a complainant (meaning a document or electronic submission (such as by electronic mail) that contains the complainant's physical or digital signature, or otherwise indicates that the complainant is the individual filing the formal complaint) alleging Prohibited Conduct under Title IX against a respondent and requesting that the University investigate the allegations of Prohibited Conduct under Title IX. At the time of filing a formal complaint, a complainant must be participating in or attempting to participate in the education program or activities of the University. A formal complaint may be filed with the University Title IX Coordinator in person, by mail, or by electronic mail, by using the contact information provided in this Policy, and by any additional method identified in this Policy.
- O. Investigator refers to a trained individual specifically with regard to policy and procedures related to Title IX and this University policy. They are responsible to gather information from all parties, relevant witnesses, relevant submitted evidence, and prepare a report to determine if a hearing should continue. This individual may be an employee of the University or an outside agency at the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator.
- P. Facilitator refers to the individual who has been trained to lead formal hearings as part of the formal resolution process. This individual begins working with the decision-makers in preparation for formal hearings, oversees the formal hearing process, and supports the decision-makers during their deliberation. The Facilitator will typically be a member of the Sexual Misconduct Prevention and Response Office. This individual may not provide any outside information during the hearing processes or provide any directive to decision-makers on questions to be asked or provide suggestions on how a case should be decided. Their role is to provide support and ensure equity throughout the hearing and report any concerns to the Title IX Coordinator.

VII. SAFETY OF MINORS

The Sexual Misconduct Prevention & Response Office is dedicated to supporting minors on campus. Its commitment to the safety of minors includes enforcement of any violation of a sexual or romantic nature with a student or guest that is presumed to be under the age of 18 or is under the age of 18. Examples may include, but are not limited to:

- A. Engaging in any sexual activity, make sexual comments, tell sexual jokes, or share sexually explicit material with Minors or assist in any way to provide access to such material to minors;
- B. Engaging or allowing minors to engage them in romantic or sexual conversations, or related matters, unless required in the role of resident advisors, counselors, or health care providers;
- C. Touching minors in a manner that a reasonable person could interpret as inappropriate. If necessary, touching should only be in the open, in response to the minor's immediate physical needs, for a purpose that is consistent with the program's mission and culture, or for a clear educational, developmental, or health-related purpose (i.e., treatment of an injury).

BOR 03.07.07 Eastern Michigan University: Sexual Misconduct and Sex-based Discrimination Policy

D. Using profanity, vulgarity, harassing language, or language that would violate this Policy; and

E. In some cases, engaging in one-on-one interaction with a minor without the consent of the minor's parent/guardian.

VIII. REPORTING

A. How to Report

There are two options for reporting Prohibited Conduct – through the Department of Public Safety (for criminal complaints) and through the Sexual Misconduct Prevention & Response Office (for complaints to the University alleging a violation of this Policy). A Complainant may choose to report to one, both, or to neither. These reporting options are not exclusive. Complainants may simultaneously pursue criminal and complaints through the Sexual Misconduct Prevention & Response Office. The University will support Complainants in understanding, assessing and pursuing these options and will assist a Complainant in notifying law enforcement and seeking medical treatment or counseling.

1. Law Enforcement – EMU Department of Public Safety (for criminal complaints)

The Department of Public Safety is a fully deputized police department. Police have unique legal authority, including the power to seek and execute search warrants, collect forensic evidence, make arrests, and assist in seeking Emergency Protective Orders.

A report to DPS is a criminal complaint. In keeping with its commitment to taking all appropriate steps to eliminate, prevent, and remedy all Prohibited Conduct, the University urges Complainants to report Prohibited Conduct immediately to the Department of Public Safety at 734.487.1222. However, Complainants have the right to notify or decline to notify law enforcement. In the event of conduct that poses a threat to the health or safety of any individual, the University may initiate a report to law enforcement.

2. EMU Sexual Misconduct Prevention & Response Office (for complaints of Prohibited Conduct)

The Title IX Coordinator is a University employee and is responsible for monitoring compliance with Title IX; ensuring appropriate education and training; coordinating the University's investigation, response, and resolution of all reports under this policy; and ensuring appropriate actions to eliminate Prohibited Conduct, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects. The Title IX Coordinator is available to meet with any Student, Employee, or Third Party to discuss this policy or the accompanying procedures. The University has also designated Deputy Title IX Coordinators to assist the Title IX Coordinator in the discharge of these responsibilities.

The University is committed to creating a reporting process that encourages and facilitates reporting for anyone who has experienced or knows about an incident of Prohibited Conduct to immediately contact the Title IX Coordinator. The University's Title IX Coordinator may be reached by telephone, email, or in person at their respective locations, email addresses and/or phone numbers listed in the Introduction to this Policy or at Eastern Michigan University's Sexual Misconduct Prevention & Response Office website. Officials with Authority, as defined in Section XI below, are also Mandatory Reporters and are required to pass reports onto the Title IX Coordinator.

B. Time Frame for Reporting. There is no time limit for reporting Prohibited Conduct to the University under this policy; however, the University's ability to respond may diminish over time, as evidence may erode, memories may fade, and Respondents may no longer be affiliated with the University. If the Respondent is no longer a Student or an Employee, the University will provide reasonably appropriate remedial measures, assist the Complainant in identifying external reporting options, and take reasonable steps to eliminate Prohibited Conduct, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects.

C. Amnesty for Good Faith Reporting: The Code of Community of Responsibility provides amnesty to students for disclosure of personal consumption of alcohol or other drugs (underage or illegal) where the disclosure is made in connection with a good faith report or investigation of Prohibited Conduct.

Concerns about the University's application of Title IX, VAWA, Title VII, the Clery Act, or Michigan's Elliott-Larsen Civil Rights Act may be addressed to the Title IX Coordinator; the United States Department of Education, Clery Act Compliance Division; the United States Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights; the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and/or the Michigan Department of Civil Rights. The contact information for the entities listed above is available at Eastern Michigan University's Sexual Misconduct Prevention & Response Office's website.

IX. INVESTIGATIVE PROCEDURES

There are two procedures for investigating complaints of Prohibited Conduct:

A. For allegations of Prohibited Conduct Under Title IX and Other University-Prohibited Conduct (as defined in Sections IV and V above), the University will proceed pursuant of the University's Sexual Misconduct and Sex-based Discrimination Grievance Process.

B. Except that for allegations of Other University-Prohibited Conduct (as defined in Section V above) involving employees or third parties, the University will proceed pursuant to the University's Discrimination/Harassment Investigation Procedure for Complaints Against Faculty, Staff or Visitors.

The procedures referenced provide for prompt and equitable response to reports of Prohibited Conduct, conducted by University representatives who receive annual training on issues related to Prohibited Conduct. The procedures designate specific time frames for major stages of the process and provide for thorough and impartial investigations, which afford all parties notice and an opportunity to present witnesses and evidence and to view the information that will be used in determining whether a policy violation has occurred. The University applies the Preponderance of the Evidence standard<sup>7</sup> when determining whether this Policy has been violated.

X. AVAILABLE SUPPORT

A. Supportive Measures. The University, under the guidance of the Title IX Coordinator, offers a wide range of resources for Students and Employees, whether as Complainants or Respondents, or witnesses to provide support and guidance throughout the initiation, investigation, and resolution of a report of Prohibited Conduct. The Title IX Coordinator or its representative will provide reasonable and appropriate measures to protect a Complainant and facilitate the Complainant's continued access to University employment or education programs and activities without unreasonably burdening the Respondent. These measures may be both remedial (designed to address a Complainant's safety and well-being and continued access to educational opportunities) or protective (involving a restrictive action against a Respondent that does not impede their access to an education program or activity, or employment pursuant to federal law). Supportive measures, which may be temporary or permanent, may include no-contact directives, residence modifications, academic modifications and support, work schedule modifications, interim disciplinary suspension, suspension from employment, and pre-disciplinary leave (with or without pay). Supportive measures are available regardless of whether a Complainant pursues a complaint or investigation under this policy. The University will maintain the privacy of any supportive measures provided under this policy to the extent practicable, and will promptly address any violation of the protective measures.

The availability of supportive and remedial measures will be determined by the specific circumstances of each report and based upon the reasonableness of their availability. The University will consider a number of factors in determining which measures to take, including the needs of the Student or Employee seeking supportive and remedial measures; the severity or pervasiveness of the alleged conduct; any continuing effects on the Complainant; whether the Complainant and the Respondent share the same residence hall, academic course(s), or job location(s); and whether other judicial measures have been taken to protect the Complainant (e.g. protective orders).

Regardless of when or where the Prohibited Title IX Conduct and Other University Prohibited Conduct occurred, the University will offer resources and assistance to community members who experience and/or are affected by Title IX Prohibited Conduct and Other University Prohibited Conduct. In those instances when this Policy does not apply, the University will assist a Complainant in identifying and contacting external law enforcement agencies and appropriate campus or community resources.

The University will provide reasonable supportive and remedial measures to Third Parties as appropriate and reasonably available, taking into account the role of the Third Party and the nature of any contractual relationship with the University.

Complainants or others should report information concerning a violation of protective measures to the Title IX Coordinator as soon as possible, and should dial 911 in situations of immediate health or safety concern. The Title IX Coordinator has the discretion to impose and/or modify any supportive measure based on all available information, and is available to meet with a Complainant or Respondent to address any concerns about the provision of supportive measures.

B. Campus and University Resources

The University offers a wide range of resources for all Students and Employees to provide support and guidance in response to any incident of Prohibited Conduct. There are a number of resources in which Students and Employees can obtain confidential, trauma informed counseling and support. These resources:

- EMU Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS), located in the Campus Wellness Center at 1075 North Huron River Drive Ypsilanti, Michigan 48197; 734.487.1118; <https://www.emich.edu/caps/index.php>.
- The EMU Community Behavioral Health Clinic, also located in the Campus Wellness Center at 1075 North Huron River Drive Ypsilanti, Michigan 48197; 734.487.4987; <https://www.emich.edu/cbhc/index.php>
- The EMU Counseling Clinic in 135 Porter Hall; 734.487.4410; <https://www.emich.edu/coe/clinical-services/counseling-services.php>.
- Employees can also obtain such counseling and support through the Employee Assistance Program. <http://www.emich.edu/hr/benefits/information/assistance-program.php>

XI. NOTICE/COMPLAINT

Upon receipt of a complaint or notice to the Title IX Coordinator of an alleged violation of the Policy, the Title IX Coordinator initiates a prompt initial assessment to determine the next steps EMU needs to take.

BOR 03.07.07 Eastern Michigan University: Sexual Misconduct and Sex-based Discrimination Policy

The Title IX Coordinator will discuss the available resources and resolution options:

1. Offering ongoing supportive measures through the process of responding to a complaint or a report of Prohibited Conduct;
2. An informal resolution; and/or
3. A formal grievance process including an investigation and a hearing<sup>8</sup>.

EMU uses the formal grievance process to determine whether or not this Policy has been violated. If EMU determines this Policy has been violated, EMU will promptly implement effective remedies designed to ensure that it is not deliberately indifferent to harassment or discrimination, their potential recurrence, or their effects.

A. Initial Assessment

Following receipt of notice or a complaint of an alleged violation of this Policy, the Title IX Coordinator<sup>9</sup> engages in an initial assessment, typically within one to five business days. The steps in an initial assessment can include:

1. If notice is given, the Title IX Coordinator seeks to determine if the person impacted wishes to make a formal complaint, and will assist them to do so, if desired.
2. If they do not wish to do so, the Title IX Coordinator determines whether to initiate a complaint because a violence risk assessment indicates a compelling threat to health and/or safety.
3. If a formal complaint is received, the Title IX Coordinator assesses its sufficiency and works with the Complainant to make sure it is correctly completed.
4. The Title IX Coordinator reaches out to the Complainant to offer supportive measures.
6. The Title IX Coordinator works with the Complainant to determine whether the Complainant prefers a supportive and remedial response, an informal resolution option, or a formal investigation and grievance process.
7. If a supportive and remedial response is preferred, the Title IX Coordinator works with the Complainant to identify their wishes, assesses the request, and implements accordingly. No Formal Grievance Process is initiated, though the Complainant can elect to initiate one later, if desired.
8. If an informal resolution option is preferred, the Title IX Coordinator assesses whether the complaint is suitable for informal resolution, which informal mechanism may serve the situation best or is available, and may seek to determine if the Respondent is also willing to engage in informal resolution.

<sup>8</sup> The University prohibits the use of medical experts that have an actual or apparent conflict of interest in an investigation or hearing. Further, the University prohibits seeking compensation from the recipient of any medical procedure, treatment, or care provided by a medical professional who has been convicted of a felony arising out of the medical procedure, treatment, or care.

<sup>9</sup> If circumstances require, the University President or Title IX Coordinator will designate another person to oversee the process below should an allegation be made about the Title IX Coordinator or should the Title IX Coordinator be otherwise unavailable or unable to fulfill their duties.

BOR 03.07.07 Eastern Michigan University: Sexual Misconduct and Sex-based Discrimination Policy

9. If a formal grievance process is preferred, the Title IX Coordinator determines if the misconduct alleged involved Prohibited Conduct under Title IX. If the misconduct alleges Prohibited Conduct under Title IX, the Title IX Coordinator will initiate the formal investigation and grievance process, directing the investigation to address:

- (i) an incident
- (ii) a pattern of alleged misconduct; and/or
- (iii) a culture/climate issue, based on the nature of the complaint.

If the misconduct alleged is not Prohibited Conduct under Title IX, but may allege Other University - Prohibited Conduct, the Title IX Coordinator (a) determines that Title IX does not apply (and will “dismiss” that aspect of the complaint, if any), (b) assesses which policies may apply and which resolution process may be applicable, and (c) will refer the matter accordingly under the University’s Community Responsibility process or the University Discrimination/Harassment Complaint Investigation Procedure for Faculty, Staff, and Visitors. Please note that dismissing a complaint under Title IX is solely a procedural requirement under Title IX, and does not limit EMU’s authority to address a complaint with an appropriate process and remedies.

B. Violence Risk Assessment. In many cases, the Title IX Coordinator may determine that a Violence Risk Assessment (VRA) should be conducted by a risk assessment team as part of the initial assessment. Threat assessment is the process of evaluating the actionability of violence by an individual against another person or group following the issuance of a direct or conditional threat. A VRA is a broader term used to assess any potential violence or danger, regardless of the presence of a vague, conditional, or direct threat.

VRAs are conducted by University employees with appropriate training. A VRA authorized by the Title IX Coordinator should occur in collaboration with a risk assessment team. Where a VRA is required by the Title IX Coordinator, a Respondent refusing to respond to the request may result in a charge of failure to comply within the appropriate student or employee conduct process.

A VRA is not an evaluation for an involuntary behavioral health hospitalization (e.g., under Michigan’s Mental Health Code, 1974 PA 258), nor is it a psychological or mental health assessment. A VRA assesses the risk of actionable violence, often with a focus on targeted/predatory escalations, and is supported by research from the fields of law enforcement, criminology, human resources, and psychology.

C. Emergency Removal. The University may act to remove a student Respondent entirely or partially from its education program or activities on an emergency basis when a VRA (as described above) has determined that an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of any student or other individual justifies removal. In such cases, the University will implement the least restrictive emergency actions possible in light of the circumstances and safety concerns. As determined by the Title IX Coordinator, these actions could include, but are not limited to removing a student from a residence hall, temporarily re-assigning a student employee, restricting a student’s access to our use of facilities or equipment, allowing a student to withdraw or take grades of incomplete without financial penalty, and suspending a student’s participation in extracurricular activities, student employment, student organizational leadership, or intercollegiate/intramural athletics.

In all cases in which an emergency removal is imposed, the student will be given notice of the action and the option to request to meet with the Title IX Coordinator within 24 hours, to show cause why the action/removal should not be implemented or should be modified. The Title IX Coordinator may suspend the removal proceeding pending the notice of the removal and the Respondent’s request to meet. This meeting is not a hearing on the merits of the allegation(s), but rather is an administrative process intended to determine solely whether the emergency removal is appropriate. When this meeting is not requested in a timely manner, objections to the emergency removal will be deemed waived. A Complainant and their advisor may be permitted to participate in this meeting if the Title IX Coordinator determines it is equitable to do so. This section also applies to any restrictions that a coach or athletic administrator may place on a student-athlete arising from allegations related to Title IX. There is no appeal process for emergency removal decisions.

A Respondent may be accompanied by an advisor of their choice when meeting with the Title IX Coordinator for the show cause meeting. The Respondent will be given access to a written summary of the basis for the emergency removal prior to the meeting to allow for adequate preparation. The Title IX Coordinator has sole discretion under this policy to implement or stay an emergency removal and to determine the conditions and duration. Violation of an emergency removal under this policy will be grounds for discipline within the student or employee conduct processes, which may include expulsion or termination.

When the Respondent is an employee, the above emergency removal process may be modified as necessary in order to comply with any applicable University employment policy or collectively bargained agreement.

D. Dismissal (Mandatory and Discretionary) pursuant to Title IX<sup>10</sup>. EMU must dismiss a formal complaint or any allegations therein pursuant to Title IX if, at any time during the investigation or hearing, it is determined that:

1. The conduct alleged in the formal complaint would not constitute Prohibited Conduct under Title IX, even if proved; and/or
2. The conduct did not occur in an educational program or activity controlled by EMU (including buildings or property controlled by recognized student organizations), and/or EMU does not have control of the Respondent;
3. The conduct did not occur against a person in the United States; and/or
4. At the time of filing a formal complaint, a complainant is not participating in or attempting to participate in the education program or activity of EMU<sup>11</sup>.

EMU may dismiss a formal complaint or any allegations therein pursuant to Title IX if, at any time during the investigation or hearing:

1. A Complainant notifies the Title IX Coordinator in writing that the Complainant would like to withdraw the formal complaint or any allegations therein;
2. The Respondent is no longer enrolled in or employed by EMU; or
3. Specific circumstances prevent EMU from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination as to the formal complaint or allegations therein.

Upon any dismissal under this section, EMU will promptly send written notice of the dismissal and the rationale for doing so simultaneously to the Complainant(s) and Respondent(s). EMU will also notify the Complainant(s) and Respondent(s) of which University grievance procedure may be applicable.

BOR 03.07.07 Eastern Michigan University: Sexual Misconduct and Sex-based Discrimination Policy

E. Appeal of Dismissal Decision. A dismissal decision under this Section is appealable by any party under the procedures for appeal described in the University’s Sexual Misconduct and Sex-Based Discrimination Grievance Process. The decision not to dismiss is also appealable by any party claiming that dismissal is required or appropriate.

XII. OFFICIALS WITH AUTHORITY

EMU will act on any formal or informal notice/complaint of violation of this Policy that is received by the Title IX Coordinator or any other Official with Authority. An Official with Authority is an EMU representative whom EMU has authorized to institute corrective measures in response to a violation of the Policy. Officials with Authority are Mandatory Reporters as defined in Section XII below. For purposes of reporting under this policy, the University considers the following individuals to be an Official with Authority:

- The Title IX Coordinator and any Deputy Title IX Coordinators
- The President of Eastern Michigan University
- The Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic and Student Affairs
- The Dean of Students
- The Vice President of Athletics / Athletics Director
- All Eastern Michigan University Department of Public Safety Officers

XIII. MANDATORY REPORTING

In order to make informed choices, it is important to be aware of confidentiality and mandatory reporting requirements when consulting campus resources. On campus, some resources may maintain confidentiality and are not required to report actual or suspected discrimination or harassment (those resources are described in more detail in Section XIII, below). They may offer options and resources without any obligation to inform an outside agency or campus official unless a Complainant has requested the information be shared.

If a Complainant expects formal action in response to their allegations, reporting to any Mandated Reporter can connect them with resources to report crimes and/or policy violations, and these employees will immediately pass reports to the Title IX Coordinator (and/or police, if desired by the Complainant), who will take action when an incident is reported to them. A party who wants to make a complaint alleging a violation of this Policy can do so themselves by making a report directly to the University in the following ways:

- A. Contact the Title IX Coordinator via email: emu\_titleix\_office@emich.edu
- B. Contact the Sexual Misconduct Prevention & Response Office via telephone: 734.487.9126.
- C. Make an in-person report at the Sexual Misconduct Prevention & Response Office, which is located at 100 Boone Hall.
- D. Make a report online: <http://www.emich.edu/title-nine>.

All regular EMU employees are Mandatory Reporters, except for those few employees who are considered Confidential Employees (as described in Section XIII below). A Mandatory Reporter is required to immediately report to the University’s Title IX Coordinator all known details (obtained directly or indirectly) about an incident of Prohibited Conduct that involves any member of the EMU community (“students”, “employees” and “third parties”) as a Complainant, Respondent, and/or witness, including the name and identity of the reporting student, employee, or third party. Mandatory Reporters additionally include Resident Advisors, Graduate Assistants, and all other student-employees, when disclosures are made to any of them in their capacities as employees.

BOR 03.07.07 Eastern Michigan University: Sexual Misconduct and Sex-based Discrimination Policy

Mandatory Reporters are not required to report information disclosed (1) at public awareness events (e.g., “Take Back the Night,” candlelight vigils, protests, “survivor speak-outs” or other public forums in which students may disclose incidents of Prohibited Conduct; collectively, “Public Awareness Events”), or (2) during a student’s participation as a subject in an Institutional Review Board-approved human subjects research protocol (“IRB Research”).

XIV. CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCES

A. Confidential Employee is

1. Any Employee who is a licensed medical, clinical or mental-health professional (e.g., physicians, nurses, physicians’ assistants, psychologists, psychiatrists, professional counselors and social workers, and those performing services under their supervision), when acting in their professional role in the provision of services to a patient who is a Student or Employee (“health care providers”);
2. any Employee providing administrative, operational and/or related support for such health care providers in their performance of such services.

A Confidential Employee will not disclose information about Prohibited Conduct to the University’s Title IX Coordinator without the Student’s permission (subject to the exceptions set forth in the next paragraph).

Confidentiality exists in the context of laws that protect certain relationships, including with medical and clinical care providers (and those who provide administrative services related to the provision of medical and clinical care), mental health providers, counselors, and ordained clergy, all of whom may engage in confidential communications under Michigan law. When information is shared by an individual with a Confidential Employee, the Confidential Employee cannot reveal the information to any third party except when an applicable law or a court order requires or permits disclosure of such information. For example, information may be disclosed when: (i) the individual gives written consent for its disclosure; (ii) there is a concern that the individual will likely cause serious physical harm to self or others; or (iii) the information concerns conduct involving suspected abuse or neglect of a minor under the age of 18.

B. Clery Act Reporting: Pursuant to the Clery Act, the University includes statistics about certain offenses in its annual security report and provides those statistics to the United States Department of Education in a manner that does not include any personally identifying information about individuals involved in an incident. The Clery Act also requires the University to maintain a daily crime log and issue timely warnings to the University community about certain crimes that have been reported and may continue to pose a serious or continuing threat to Students and Employees. Consistent with the Clery Act, the University withholds the names and other personally identifying information of Complainants when issuing timely warnings to the University community. Clery reporting is administered by EMU’s Department of Public Safety.

C. Privacy: The University is committed to protecting the privacy of individuals engaged in the reporting and investigative process, including the identity of individuals and information involved in the investigation and resolution of a report under this policy. Mandatory Reporters should maintain the privacy of Title IX related information related to a report of Prohibited Conduct, and information should only be shared beyond the Title IX Coordinator or DPS on a “need to know” basis in order to assist in the review, investigation and resolution of the report, or support of the parties.

The University is committed to providing assistance to help Students, Employees and Third Parties make informed choices. With respect to any report under this policy, the University will make reasonable efforts to protect the privacy of participants, in accordance with applicable state and federal law, while balancing the need to gather information to assess the report and to take steps to eliminate Prohibited Conduct, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects.

The privacy of Student education records will be protected in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). The privacy of an individual’s medical and related records generally are protected in the United States by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), excepting health records protected by FERPA. The privacy of Employee personnel records will be protected in accordance with Michigan state law.

BOR 03.07.07 Eastern Michigan University: Sexual Misconduct and Sex-based Discrimination Policy

Open Records laws may require disclosure of law enforcement records. However, victim and witness names in law enforcement records will not be disclosed, unless otherwise required by law.

The University also protects privacy with regard to personal information pursuant to The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), FERPA, HIPAA, and the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA).

XV. PREVENTION AND AWARENESS PROGRAMS

The University is committed to the prevention of Prohibited Conduct through regular and ongoing education and awareness programs. Incoming Students and new Employees receive primary prevention and awareness programming as part of their orientation, and returning Students and current Employees receive ongoing training and related education.

XVI. TRAINING

The University provides training to Students and Employees to ensure they understand this Policy and the topics and issues related to maintaining an education and employment environment free from harassment and discrimination.

XVII. OBLIGATION TO PROVIDE TRUTHFUL INFORMATION

All University community members are expected to provide truthful information in any report or proceeding under this Policy. Submitting or providing false or misleading information, in bad faith or for personal gain or to cause intentional harm to another, in connection with an incident of Prohibited Conduct is prohibited and subject to disciplinary sanctions under the EMU's Code of Community Responsibility and disciplinary action under the appropriate Employee disciplinary policy. This provision does not apply to reports made or information provided in good faith, even if the facts alleged in the report are not later substantiated.

XVIII. ANNUAL REVIEW

This policy is maintained by the Sexual Misconduct Prevention & Response Office. The University will review and update this policy, as appropriate, by October 31 of each year. The University will evaluate, among other things, any changes in legal requirements, existing University resources, and the resolution of cases from the preceding year (including, but not limited to, timeframes for completion and sanctions and remedies imposed).

Authority for Creation and Revision:

Minutes of the Board of Regents, June 26, 2025

Note: This policy was formerly part of Policy 02.09.
