

Campus Climate Incident Report Form

Saginaw Valley State University is committed to creating and maintaining an educational environment which creates an inclusive and equitable campus community where people are treated with dignity and respect. As such, we take seriously our responsibility to track and address campus climate concerns with the goal of resolving campus concerns at the earliest opportunity possible.

WHAT IS CAMPUS CLIMATE?

The University defines a “campus climate incident” as any instance where someone feels belittled, disrespected, or isolated based on their identity.

Please use this form to document campus climate-related behavior/action to SVSU 's Campus Climate Incident Response Team (CCIRT). This report can be submitted by individuals directly affected by campus climate-related behaviors/actions, observers, (students, faculty, staff and guests) or those indirectly impacted (advisor, family, friends, etc.)

We encourage you to include your contact information to allow us to follow up and provide the necessary support to impacted persons/groups, but you may submit an incident report anonymously. SVSU strives to honor the wishes of Reporters and/or Involved persons/groups but may need to pursue additional actions to protect the health and welfare of impacted persons and the broader University community.

INCIDENT REPORT

This incident report form is available to anyone who would like to notify the University about the following:

Bias Incident for situations based upon actual or perceived race, color, national origin, religion, creed, age, marital status, mental or physical disability, veteran status, sex, sexual orientation and/or gender identity/expression.

Sexual Harassment/Sexual Assault/Dating Violence/Domestic Violence/Stalking (Title IX) for situations involving sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, or retaliation.

Student Issue and/or Concern for an individual whom you feel may be struggling physically or psychologically.

Student/Student Organization Misconduct that allegedly occurred on or off campus.

CONTACT

If this is an emergency please dial 911 or SVSU University Police at (989) 964-4141 immediately. All reports will be reviewed in a timely manner. While reports are reviewed by a variety of campus partners working to assist students and employees, it is NOT designed for emergency response.

If you have any questions, please contact the Office of the Dean of Students at (989) 964-4410.
