Return to NEUTRALS

The 2026 Pantone® color of the year, Cloud Dancer, is a clean, versatile and timeless shade. Its ability to create a greater sense of spaciousness, bring calm and complement fine materials without detracting from them defines its essence: a quiet, light and contemporary white. It reflects a search for clarity, visual honesty and more balanced spaces.

Inspired by Cloud Dancer: the timeless white that will define interiors and exteriors this year. Explore our tile collection to discover elegant whites and subtle textures that perfectly echo this aesthetic.

Porcelanosa's commitment to sustainability goes far beyond products. Across our seven brands, we've built a model of circular design, where innovation, efficiency, and respect for the environment guide every decision.

Zero Waste Production

Over 90% of our industrial waste is reused, recycled, or recovered, certified by SGS Zero Waste since 2019.

Circular Economy

We reintroduce ceramic waste back into production – creating tiles with up to 95% recycled content.

Water Recirculation

5 state-of-the-art treatment plants purify and reuse nearly 100% of our process water, ensuring zero discharge.

Renewable Energy

More than 90% of our energy comes from renewable sources, including 6,500 MWh of solar power generated annually.

Decarbonization Goals

Electrification of thermal processes, research in green hydrogen, and investment in biogas help cut CO2 emissions every year.

Biodiversity Protection

Since 2021, over 24,000 trees have been planted, offsetting more than 3,000 tons of CO2 and restoring over 15 hectares of land.

Sustainability Mobility

From EV charging stations to carpooling initiatives, Porcelanosa fosters responsible commuting practices.

Eco-Certified Products

Our materials contribute to LEED, BREEAM, and VERDE green building certifications.

Sustainable Materials

From Gamadecor's 100% FSC-certified wood to Krion Shell®, our collections embrace renewable, low-impact resources.
