Wednesday 7pm Parish Standing Committee meets

Saturday 10am : A coffee morning at St Faith's – to raise funds for 'Stop Domestic Abuse'. If you are able to help us could you please let Lorraine or none of the Ministry Team know

Also at 2pm : We will be hosting a visit from the Bishop of Kingston, Jamaica, who is visiting the Diocese as part of the Windrush 75 events. If you know anyone with an association with the Caribbean please encourage them to come and meet him and chat about their experience of life in the UK. The afternoon will end at 4pm with a short act of worship and on that day at 5.45pm – our Choir will be singing Evensong at the Cathedral and would welcome your support.

Next Sunday – 4pm we welcome Zephyr Wind Ensemble for the Music Foundation concert at St Mary's. Free entry with a retiring collection to support the work of the Music Foundation.

Monday June 19th 7.30pm Julian Prayer Group at St Faith's

Tuesday June 29th 7pm Tuesday Chaps meets at St Faith's
– please see Fr Rajiv

Sunday July 2nd Strawberry Tea – we will be having a Strawberry Tea, with music in the churchyard and a chance to climb the Tower. Tickets are available for the Churches. Please book yours in advance!

At the Annual Meeting we asked for offers of help to serve the Tea and Coffee at St Mary's on a Sunday. We are grateful to the small team who generously give of their time to do this – it would be good to have a couple more folks to help them – please let Fr Bob or Fr Rajiv know if you are interested.

Revd Sam will be leaving the Parish at the end of July to move to Fareham for her new post. We will share details of her farewell next week, but if you would like to make a donation towards a farewell gift for her please do so in a clearly marked envelope or if paying by BACS ref : Sam Gift.
