

The Parish Church
of St Mary Portsea

Sung Eucharist
for Pentecost

We sing

Come down, O Love divine,
seek thou this soul of mine,
and visit it
with thine own ardour glowing.

O Comforter, draw near,
within my heart appear,
and kindle it,
thy holy flame bestowing.

O let it freely burn,
till earthly passions turn
to dust and ashes
in its heat consuming;
and let thy glorious light
shine ever on my sight,
and clothe me round,
the while my path illuming.

Let holy charity
mine outward vesture be,
and lowliness
become mine inner clothing;
true lowliness of heart,
which takes the humbler part
and o'er its own shortcomings
weeps with loathing.

And so the yearning strong with which the soul will long shall far outpass
the power of human telling;
for none can guess its grace,
till he become the place wherein the Holy Spirit
makes his dwelling.

A short reflection

We affirm our Faith

Do you believe and trust in God the Father,
source of all being and life,
the one for whom we exist?

I believe and trust in him.

Do you believe and trust in God the Son,
who took our human nature,
died for us and rose again?

I believe and trust in him.

Do you believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit,
who gives life to the people of God
and makes Christ known in the world?

I believe and trust in him.

This is the faith of the Church.

This is our faith.

We believe and trust in one God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

We pray to God

Lord, in your mercy

All hear our prayer.

Merciful Father,
All accept these prayers for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

We share Christ's love and peace

Alleluia! The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

All And also with you. Alleluia!

Be aware of all who share in this celebration and reflect on how we share Christ's peace in our lives and how we can show and share that peace with others.

We offer our lives to Christ

The gifts of bread and wine are offered. If you wish to make a donation as a sign of your offering to God there are collection plates by the Font for you to use as you leave the service.

(For those sharing in the live stream please contact us for details of how to donate via BACS)

As the Altar is prepared we sing the hymn

Come, thou Holy Spirit, come,
and from thy celestial home
shed thy light and brilliancy:
Father of the poor draw near,
giver of all gifts, be here,
come, the soul's true radiancy.

Come, of comforters the best,
of the soul the sweetest guest,
come in toil refreshingly:
thou in labour rest most sweet,
thou art shadow from the heat,
comfort in adversity.

O thou light most pure and blest,
shine within the inmost breast
of thy faithful company:
where thou art not, man has nought;
every holy deed and thought
comes from thy divinity.

Sinful hearts do thou make whole,
bring to life the arid soul,
guide the feet that go astray:
make the stubborn heart unbend,
to the faint new hope extend,
wounded souls their hurt allay.

Fill the faithful, who confide
in thy power to guard and guide,
with thy sevenfold mystery:
here thy grace and virtue send,
grant salvation in the end,
and in heaven felicity.

S. Langton (d. 1228)

At the end of the hymn a prayer is offered at the end of which

All Amen

We thank God

The Lord be with you

Hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come;
Thy will be done: on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.

As we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the Kingdom, the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

We say thank you

The Priest says a prayer, of thanksgiving.

All Amen

Notices may be given after which We sing the following hymn during which the elected members of the Parochial Church Council come to the Dais

Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know
and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
will you let my love be known,
will you let my life be grown
in you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind
if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare
should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer
in you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see
if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean,
and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean
in you and you in me?

Will you love the 'you' you hide
if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside
and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found
to reshape the world around,
through my sight and touch and sound
in you and you in me?

Lord, your summons echoes true
when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you
and never be the same.
In your company I'll go
where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow
in you and you in me.

J. Bell (b.1949) & G. Maule (b. 1958) Music: Kelvingrove

At the end of the hymn those elected to serve are asked :

Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers of God's people?

Those elected: With the help of God, I will.

Will you persevere in resisting evil and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

With the help of God, I will.

Will you proclaim by word and example the good news of God in Christ?

With the help of God, I will.

Will you seek and serve Christ in all people, loving your neighbour as yourself?

With the help of God, I will.

Will you acknowledge Christ's authority over human society, by prayer for the world and its leaders, by defending the weak, and by seeking peace and justice?

With the help of God, I will.

My brothers and sisters in Christ: we are all baptised by the one Spirit into one Body, and all alike share in the mission which Christ entrusts to his Church. For that purpose, we are given a variety of ministries for the common good.

You, my friends, have been called to undertake the responsibilities of deputy wardens and members of the PCC within this parish.

So I ask you: Do you give yourself to the office to which you have been elected to serve?

I gladly do so, the Lord being my helper.

May the Lord be your helper and guide and bless you in all your work undertaken for him.

All God bless this parish and all who live here.
Grant that your Church may grow in holiness,
and we may be a sign of your love for all.
We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Then after an introduction – all those present (or on line) are invited to respond

Empowered by the Holy Spirit,
will you dare to walk into God's future,
trusting him to be your guide?

All By the Spirit's power, we will.

Will you dare to embrace each other and grow together in love?

All We will.

Will you dare to share your riches in common
and minister to each other in need?

All We will.

Will you dare to pray for each other until your hearts beat with the longings of God?

All We will.

Will you dare to carry the light of Christ
into the world's dark places?

All We will.

We are blessed

The Lord be with you

All And also with you

The Priest gives God's blessing

We sing the final hymn

Colours of day dawn into the mind,
the sun has come up, the night is behind.
Go down to the city, into the street,
and let's give the message to the people we meet.
*So light up the fire and let the flame burn,
open the door, let Jesus return,
take seeds of his Spirit, let the fruit grow,
tell the people of Jesus, let his love show.*

Go through the park, on into the town;
the sun still shines on; it never goes down.
The light of the world is risen again;
the people of darkness are needing our friend.
So light up the fire ...

Open your eyes, look into the sky,
the darkness has come, the sun came to die.
The evening draws on, the sun disappears,
but Jesus is living, and his Spirit is near.
So light up the fire ...

Words & Music: S. McLellan (b.1951), J Paculabo (b.1946) & K. Ryecroft (b.1949)
