

The Parish Church of St Mary Portsea

Sung Eucharist for Pentecost

We sing

Come down, O Love divine, seek thou this soul of mine,
and visit it
with thine own ardour glowing.
O Comforter, draw near,
within my heart appear,
and kindle it,
thy holy flame bestowing.

O let it freely burn,
till earthly passions turn to dust and ashes
in its heat consuming;
and let thy glorious light
shine ever on my sight,
and clothe me round,
the while my path illuming.

Let holy charity
mine outward vesture be,
and lowliness
become mine inner clothing;
true lowliness of heart, which takes the humbler part and o'er its own shortcomings weeps with loathing.

And so the yearning strong with which the soul will long shall far outpass
the power of human telling;
for none can guess its grace, till he become the place wherein the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling.

A short reflection

We affirm our Faith

Do you believe and trust in God the Father, source of all being and life,
the one for whom we exist?

I believe and trust in him.

Do you believe and trust in God the Son, who took our human nature,
died for us and rose again?

I believe and trust in him.

Do you believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit, who gives life to the people of God and makes Christ known in the world?

I believe and trust in him.

This is the faith of the Church.

This is our faith.

We believe and trust in one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

We pray to God

Lord, in your mercy

All hear our prayer.

Merciful Father,

All accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

We share Christ's love and peace

Alleluia! The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

All And also with you. Alleluia!

Be aware of all who share in this celebration and reflect on how we share Christ's peace in our lives and how we can show and share that peace with others.

We offer our lives to Christ

The gifts of bread and wine are offered. If you wish to make a donation as a sign of your offering to God there are collection plates by the Font for you to use as you leave the service.

As the Altar is prepared we sing the hymn

Come, thou Holy Spirit, come, and from thy celestial home shed thy light and brilliancy: Father of the poor draw near,
giver of all gifts, be here,
come, the soul's true radiancy.

Come, of comforters the best, of the soul the sweetest guest,
come in toil refreshingly:

Sinful hearts do thou make whole,
bring to life the arid soul,
guide the feet that go astray:
make the stubborn heart unbend,
to the faint new hope extend,
wounded souls their hurt allay.

Fill the faithful, who confide in thy power to guard and guide, with thy sevenfold mystery:
here thy grace and virtue send,
grant salvation in the end,
and in heaven felicity.

thou in labour rest most sweet,
thou art shadow from the heat, comfort in adversity.

O thou light most pure and blest, shine within the inmost breast
of thy faithful company:
where thou art not, man has nought;
every holy deed and thought comes from thy divinity.

At the end of the hymn a prayer is offered at the end of which

All Amen

We thank God

The Lord be with you

And also with you

The Priest gives God's blessing

We sing the final hymn

Colours of day dawn into the mind, the sun has come up, the night is behind.
Go down to the city, into the street, and let's give the message to the people we meet.

*So light up the fire and let the flame burn, open the door; let Jesus return,
take seeds of his Spirit, let the fruit grow, tell the people of Jesus, let his love show.*

Go through the park, on into the town;
the sun still shines on; it never goes down.
The light of the world is risen again;
the people of darkness are needing our friend.

So light up the fire ...

Open your eyes, look into the sky,
the darkness has come, the sun came to die.
The evening draws on, the sun disappears, but Jesus is living, and his Spirit is near.
So light up the fire ...
