

Bianca Kann (Brazil, 1995) is a multimedia artist currently living and working between Brooklyn, New York and São Paulo, Brazil. She received her BFA from New York University in 2017. Kann has participated in multiple group exhibitions in New York including “The Nose” at George Gallery, Brooklyn, NY and “Overflow” at Special Special Gallery, New York, NY. One of Bianca’s first group exhibition in New York City, “Fresh” was curated by Gueiros in 2018 and they have since worked closely together in other exhibitions such as “Nothing in Isolation” at Pablo’s Birthday Gallery in New York’s Lower East Side and most recently “:)” an exhibition for the online platform Preview.