

Cooper Lovano (USA, 1995) lives and works between Berlin and New York. They work primarily in sculpture and video, addressing themes surrounding mortality, memorialization, and the absurdity and transcendent potential of imbuing objects with meaning. They've received a BFA from NYU in 2017 and have participated in exhibitions between Berlin and New York.