

Roswitha Brunner becomes new Head of Corporate Communication

Roswitha Brunner took up her position as Head of Corporate Communication on December 1, 2020. In this function, the 43-year-old reports directly to CEO Julien Schillewaert.

Zurich, December 2, 2020 - Roswitha Brunner has taken over as Head of Global Corporate Communications of PriceHubble on December 1, 2020. The 43-year-old, who reports directly to CEO Julien Schillewaert, is responsible for public relations and worldwide group PR of the PropTech company.

She gained her first communications experience during her 6 years with UBS in Public Affairs. From 2008 to 2014, she worked for a Zurich communications agency that focused on political and business communications and strategy consulting. From June 2014 to November 2020, Brunner held various positions in corporate communications at the AMAG Group, most recently as Head of Group PR & CSR.

Brunner holds an MAS in Communication Management & Leadership from the ZHAW Zurich University of Applied Sciences.

"Roswitha Brunner brings with her proven professional experience in all communication disciplines and a good network in the Swiss media landscape. We are convinced that her know-how will take PriceHubble PR to the next level," says CEO Julien Schillewaert.
