PBR Union Home Mortgage Invitational
Smoothie King Center– New Orleans, Louisiana
Friday, March 17 at 7:45 p.m. CST
Saturday, March 18 at 6:45 p.m. CST

BIG EASY BUCKOFF – This weekend, the elite Unleash The Beast returns to New Orleans, Louisiana, for the first time in 13 years and seventh time overall. Smoothie King Center will host the PBR for two days of action on Friday, March 17, starting at 7:45 p.m. CST, and concluding Saturday, March 18, at 6:45 p.m. CST. This is the 16th event of the 2023 Unleash The Beast season with seven events remaining until the 2023 PBR World Finals in Fort Worth, Texas, May 12-21.

GETTING ICY – Veteran Kaique Pacheco returned to the win column for his second event win of the 2023 season last weekend in Milwaukee as the only rider to go a perfect 3-for-3, and rose to No. 2 in the standings, just 71.5 points behind Jose Vitor Leme. The “Ice Man” began the weekend with an 89-point ride atop Alter Ego in Round 1 and followed that up by hanging onto Midnight Flyer for 81 points in Round 2. Seeded third headed into the championship round, Pacheco chose to tango with Moonlight Party for his final dance, and the choice paid off, as he lasted the 8 for 89 points and secured his first victory since winning in Georgia in January. The Brazilian has lived up to his nickname over the past month, as he has posted at least one qualified ride in each of the past five events, and his 55% riding percentage is third-best on tour. Furthermore, he stays cold as ice when the lights are the brightest, as he is currently 6-for-9 in championship rounds this season, the most rides in the final round on tour and the sixth-highest riding percentage. Pacheco is paired with Kodiak in Round 1 on Friday.

LEME REMAINS NO. 1 – Jose Vitor Leme maintained his position atop the Unleash The Beast standings for the sixth consecutive week after going 2-for-3 and finishing third, his first top-three finish since winning in Sacramento, and he currently sits 71.5 points ahead of Kaique Pacheco in the UTB standings. The Brazilian dominated early in February, producing a six-out ride streak to begin the month that ended in the championship round in Tulsa after he had overtaken the No. 1 spot by winning and placing second in the 15/15 Bucking Battle the week before in Sacramento. In the two-time PBR World Champion’s first trip to California this season, he went a perfect 3-for-3, starting with an 85.5-point ride on Havoc in Round 1. Leme saved his best for Championship Sunday, putting up 89.5 points in a dance with Lil Hott in Round 2 before closing out his 26th career elite tour win with an 87.5-point ride on The Right Stuff. In addition to his Sacramento event win, Leme placed second in the 15/15 Bucking Battle by hanging on to Charmer for 86.75 points. It was the second time this season that the Brazilian champion had won an event and placed second in a Bucking Battle during the same weekend, as Leme went 3-for-3 in Chicago and placed second in the 15/15 Bucking Battle with another qualified ride on The Right Stuff, this time for 88 points. He started his perfect weekend in the Windy City by hanging on to Reinstate Hank for 83.5 points and followed that up with an 87-point ride atop Knuckle Head. He then won his second buckle of 2023 with an 88.25-point, 8-second two-step with Cliff Hanger. In early January, Leme won his first event of 2023 in New York, going 3-for-4, starting his year with an 87.75-point ride atop Pickle Moonshine. He followed that up with an 86.5-point dance with Bad Decisions, and then closed the show by wowing the crowd at the Garden with a 92-point romp atop Cliff Hanger. Leme, who has never competed in New Orleans, is slated to face Hog Wild in Round 1.

HOT TAKES – Ahead of this week’s PBR Brew City Classic in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, here are a few other storylines to note:

- The Champion of the Great White North Heads to the Deep South: 2022 PBR Canadian Champion Nick Tetz had a strong showing in Milwaukee last weekend, as he went 2-for-3 and finished sixth. It was just the Alberta native’s second appearance on the UTB tour, and he began his return to the big show with an impressive 87-point ride atop Death Warrant in Round 1. He hung on for 82 points atop Mike’s Effect in Round 2, but was unable to bring home his first event win after being bucked off by Mike’s Motive in the Championship Round. However, he is looking to build on his success in New Orleans this weekend, and he takes on Sonny B in Round 1 on Friday.

- Welcome Mr. Wimer: California native Chase Wimer makes his Unleash The Best debut in New Orleans this weekend after four consecutive top-10 finishes on the Pendleton Whiskey Velocity Tour. After a disappointing start to his season in Spokane, Washington, in January, where he went 0-for-1, Wimer has gone an incredible 6-for-10 and is looking to stay hot as he moves up to the premier series and dances with Razzmatazz in Round 1 on Friday.

FAMILIAR WATERS – Round 1 of the PBR Union Home Mortgage Invitational will feature three rematches. Those familiar showdowns are:

- Eduardo Aparecido looks for a repeat performance on Gangster Time after he rode the animal athlete for 87 points in the pair’s first matchup in Las Vegas in the Team Series Semifinals. After bucking off the first four cowboys who attempted to ride him this season, Gangster Time was solved for 86.25 points in Los Angeles by Dener Barbosa in the bull’s last out.
- Kaique Pacheco attempts to last the 8 on Kodiak for the second time this season. In the first matchup between the two in Indianapolis in January, the “Ice Man” was able to hang on for 84 points. It is the only time Kodiak has been ridden in his six UTB outs, and he bucked off Cody Jesus in just .99 seconds in his last out in Little Rock, Arkansas.
- Kyler Oliver looks for revenge against Ninja Cowboy after the bovine competitor bucked him off in 2.43 seconds in Queen Creek, Arizona, during a Touring Pro Division event in 2021. This year, the animal competitor has bucked off three of four potential riders, as Texan Chase Dougherty has been the only one able to last the 8, doing so for 86.5 points in Indianapolis in January.

PAST NEW ORLEANS EVENT WINNERS – When PBR’s premier series was last in New Orleans in 2010, Pistol Robinson delivered a perfect 3-for-3 performance to win the event, starting the weekend with an 86.75-point ride atop Iron Broke in Round 1. In Round 2, the Texan avoided the bite of Alligator Chomp and lasted the 8 for 86 points before securing the victory with an 89-point romp atop Bad Moon in the championship round. The rest of the Top 5 was star-studded, with three-time PBR World Finals event winner Robson Palermo in second, two-time PBR World Champion Chris Shivers in third and 2008 PBR World Champion Guilherme Marchi in fifth.

POINTS SYSTEM UPDATE – During the 2023 season, the PBR debuted a new points system, making the premier series even more important for determining the next World Champion while simplifying the points structure across all PBR tours. The biggest change is a move away from the world standings. The 2023 World Champion will now be the rider who earns the most points only at Unleash The Beast (UTB) events, including at the 2023 PBR World Finals on May 12-21 in Fort Worth, Texas. There are three PBR tours in the U.S. in action for the first half of 2023: PBR Unleash The Beast (Nov. 26 – May 21); Pendleton Whisky Velocity Tour (Nov. 19 – May 6) and PBR Touring Pro Division (Nov. 4 – May 6). Points accumulated in non-UTB events domestically, as well as in PBR’s international tours, are tallied as Velocity Global points. Velocity Global points, also used to crown the 2023 PBR Pendleton Whisky Velocity Tour Champion, will be the essential currency for determining the athletes who can earn a future draw spot on the elite Unleash The Beast.

Points will be awarded as follows for the Unleash The Beast events, including World Finals, as well as Tier 1 Velocity Global events:
