PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

My art is born from a lifelong devotion to beauty, forged over twenty years of study and creation. Rooted in the intricate craft of book illustration, my hand learned to speak in delicate lines and symbolic whispers. Yet, my heart truly awakened in 2010, when I embraced the richness of oil paint, finding a new resonance for my graphic soul upon the canvas. I have shared my vision at Russia's most revered artistic halls—from the Moscow Book Fair to the Biennale of Contemporary Art. Now, under the Italian sun, my journey continues to unfold. My paintings have found their homes in regional museums and private sanctuaries across both nations, carrying a quiet echo of my path.
