

Anna Varshavska

Interdisciplinary artist working across multiple media. Her practice investigates themes of the body, memory, and cultural heritage, with a particular focus on personal and collective histories. Drawing from her Ukrainian and Greek family background, Anna explores inherited narratives, identity formation, and the transmission of memory through material and embodied practices.

Born in Odesa, Ukraine, she relocated to Lviv after completing her undergraduate studies and received her MFA from the Lviv National Academy of Arts in 2020. Currently lives and works in Lviv, Ukraine.
