Aargey Peak. 6030 Mtr. Hidden Zaskar region of Himalayas.

Aargey Peak In Zaskar Lungnak valley Mountain range of Himalaya !

The Zaskar Range is spread over a vast area from south eastern boundaries of the state and extends in the northwest direction to the eastern limits of Tibet.

The Zaskar Range is a mountain range in the union territory of Ladakh that separates the Zaskar valley from Indus valley at Leh. Geologically, the Zaskar Range is part of the Tethys Himalaya, an approximately 100-km-wide synclinalorium formed by strongly folded and imbricated, weakly metamorphosed sedimentary series. The average height of the Zaskar Range is from about 6,000 m above 7000 m. Its eastern part is known as Rupshu Kharnak. Western side the great range of karakoram and saichen.

This peak was explored and Introduced by Founder of Tsarap Himalayan Adventure S.Tundup Tsarap . He has been reced about this peak a few time by himself before.

On August 3rd he successfully summited on Aargey peak above 6030 Mtr with 7 climber from India and Japanes. He founded the peak Elevation high is 6030 MT.

To climb on this peak will accessible to get by road from Manali- Darcha side NH 3. Other option from Leh and kargil NH 01.

The summit day lasts 6–10 hours, ascending over more than 1,000 metres from base camp to the Summit. Every day of this dramatic and varied multi-day hike differs from the one before. We'll descend into long fertile valleys, with green meadows, on way around mountain passes and stand at the foot of the highest mountains in the Ladakh Zaskar ranges

Ladakh from the valleys of Kashmir and the Chenab River. In other words, it serves as a boundary line between Ladakh region of Kashmir and the remaining two regions of the state i.e. Jammu region and Vale of Kashmir. The 23,000 feet (7,000 m) high peak Nunkun is within this range. Marbal Pass and many other passes which connect Ladakh with Kashmir are in this area, 13,000 feet (4,000 m) high Zojila Pass is in the extreme northwest of Zaskar range. This range, in fact is a branch of the great Himalayan range of mountains. Many rivers start in different branches of this range flow northward, and join the great Indus River. These rivers include Hanle River, Khurna River, Zaskar River, Tsarap river, Suru River (Indus), and Shingo River. It also separates Kinnaur from Spiti valley in Himachal Pradesh. The highest peaks of Himachal are in Zaskar range.
