

Sandip Mukherjee

Across the globe Sandip Mukherjee has successfully headed hotels, resorts, state houses, international chain of restaurants and hospitality institutes for four decades and more.

He has been the Director of Operations for Luxury Hotels, Palaces and Resorts for the Taj Group of Hotels. Post retirement in 2018, he was posted to the IHM at Aurangabad managed by the Taj.

Since then, he has opened two Hotel Management Degree Colleges in Kolkata operating as their whole time Director. Sandip is a Hospitality trainer, consultant and academic based out of Kolkata. He is currently the Professor Emeritus at the National Council Institute of Hotel Management in Kolkata - teaching students of the MSc. Course in Hotel Management.

He advises Tata Medical Centre, Kolkata for their Patient Navigation Programme working under the guidance of the Director - Dr. M.M. Chandy.

He often works pro bono cutting across a spectrum of businesses. He has a rich and successful track of people driven leadership. Sandip is now an author as well, having recently released his first literature/fiction offering - Tales of A Hotelwallah.

Linkedin profile : <https://www.linkedin.com/in/sandip-mukherjee-3557b418/>

