

Diann C. Roffe

Olympic Gold and Silver Medalist, World Cup Champion, seven-time National Champion, member of the United States Ski Hall of Fame – Diann Roffe’s athletic career is one that makes legends! With her superlative credentials, she could have instructed and been a goodwill ambassador with any ski area in the world, but she chose Pennsylvania!

Diann has served as a Ski Ambassador and Clinician and Director of Sales Development for Ski Time, Inc. which operates the Pennsylvania Liberty Mountain Resort, Ski Roundtop, and Whitetail Resort. Diann has also served as the Director of Sales and Marketing of the Leadership Management Institute, for Ski Roundtop, and is the founder of the Ski Roundtop Roffe Training Center, and Facilitator of the Ski Roundtop Flying Leap Ropes Course. Diann currently serves as a Senior Leadership Consultant, with the Leadership Management Institute, which provides training and organizational services.

Diann serves as a motivational speaker and has worked with many major United States and international corporations, served as a sports commentator for ESPN and other organizations, and has been featured in a number of national advertising campaigns.

Diann’s skiing achievements include the following:

- 1994 Olympic Gold Medalist, Lillehammer, Norway, Super-G
- 1992 Olympic Silver Medalist, Albertville, France, Giant Slalom
- 1988 Olympic Team member, Calgary, Canada
- 1985 World Championship Gold Medalist, Bormio, Italy, Giant Slalom
- 1984 World Junior Championship Silver Medalist, Giant Slalom
- Seven-time National Champion
- Inducted into the United States Ski Hall of Fame, 2004
- PSIA clinician and Nastar Pacesetter

Diann is a very special role model for individuals and skiers of all ages. She conducts race classes, speaks well and often, and gives liberally of her time to promote safe and fun snow sports and all of life’s activities.
