     1. Copies of the VVCFA Bylaws and Standing Rules will be posted on the VVCFA
        Website.
     2. Copies of the VVCFA Bylaws and Standing Rules will be kept in the VVCFA Office in both hard and electronic formats.
  B. Representative Council Votes
     1. Representative Council members may request a secret ballot for any vote of the Council.
     2. Such a request shall not require a second, allow for debate, be amended, or require a vote to implement.
     3. Email Voting
        A. The Representative Council needs from time to time to make emergency decisions on behalf of VVCFA between Council meetings.
        B. Email voting can be used by the Representative Council for action items that meet at least one of the following criteria:
           1. The item has a deadline that occurs before the next meeting of the Council;
           2. The item is required because of an urgent situation.
        C. Email voting shall follow Parliamentary Procedure
           1. In the case of an emergency motion, it shall be emailed by the President, who shall provide the justification and ask for a second;
           2. Once the motion is seconded, the Representative Council shall discuss the motion for three working days via email using “Reply All;”
           3. Voting shall take place for two days after close of discussion.
     D. The President and another officer shall tally and report the results via email to the Representative Council.
     E. The Association shall print the emails containing the motion and each vote as well as the result page.
     F. The Association shall also maintain a record of the proceedings; this record shall include the justification for the email vote, a roll call of those who participated in the voting, the motion, and the results. These records shall be reported out and included in the minutes of the next Representative Council.

- RULE 1-3: Association Name
  A. The name of the Association shall be the “Victor Valley College Faculty Association” and/or “VVCFA.”
