EXPERIENCING THE SHEPHERD OF HERMAS

Edited by Angela Kim Harkins and Harry O. Maier

This book breaks new ground in the study of the Shepherd of Hermas, one of the most widely read works in the early church. Leading scholars explore the topic of experience in the Shepherd with the help of a variety of interdisciplinary tools that include critical literary theory, anthropology, cognitive science, enactivism, affect theory, gender studies, intersectionality, and text reception.

THE SERIES: EKSTASIS

The series Ekstasis publishes monographs and collected essays on topics concerning religious experience from Antiquity to the Middle Ages. Volumes in this series will address a diverse array of movements and particular expressions of religious experience, such as ecstatic trances, magic, healing, prophecy, divination, and dreams, as well as other phenomena. Methods will range widely, encompassing contemporary sociological, anthropological, and psychological approaches, as well as historical analysis of textual, archaeological, and artistic evidence.
