

Mrs. Yost's Weekly Report

Week of:

February 24, 2025

Current Events

This week we are learning the letter /l/ sound. It is the sound you hear at the beginning of lion and lamb.

In math we are talking about hundreds place value. We also are writing addition equations.

Special Events

We've been working all year on a shirt to wear on our 100th day of school. Please keep this in mind when you dress your child for school tomorrow!!

Personals

Be sure your child has brought in a set of 100 objects they count to me.

Reminders

Feb. 25th -100th Day

Feb. 28th-Conference Day

Mar. 3-7 Celebrate Reading Week

Help Wanted

We've been writing the numerals in our journals. I'm noticing that many children are still making numbers incorrectly. Please find attached a sheet to practice writing 6-10.

Special

Conference Day is Feb. 28th. The children will not have school that day so I can privately talk with each of you. The main door will be open that day for you to enter the building.
