

JACKSON COUNTY HEALTH DEPARTMENT EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Public Health
Prevent. Promote. Protect.
Jackson County Health Department

Outreach Educator

Full-time position for an enthusiastic individual with strong communication and critical thinking skills under direct supervision, plans, implements and evaluates a variety of sexual health education programs; collaborates with a variety of division staff and community health agencies and organizations; to support and provide health education, risk reduction and outreach services to diverse populations.

Hours: Full-time equals 35 hours per week

Salary: $45,208.80 ($24.84/hour)

Minimum Requirements: Bachelor's degree in Public Health or in a social service related area. Preferred but not required, one-year experience providing disease intervention services, contact tracing, sexual health or HIV Services.

- KEY JOB DUTIES:
- Assists the Disease Intervention Specialist with case findings, treatment, partner services, and outreach duties of a professional nature to patients.
 - Works with Program Coordinators to promote programming, provides outreach testing and clinic coverage, provides linkage to care and work effectively with community agencies and partners.
 - Provides community education to reduce the risk of sexually transmitted disease and to promote programming efforts.
 - Significant hours spent at off-site locations

To apply, complete the application located on the Jackson County Health Dept website – jchdonline.org then select careers.

Applications are being accepted thru April 19, 2024

We are committed to providing reasonable accommodations to individuals with disabilities in the employment application process. Candidates who need an accommodation due to a disability for any part of the application or hiring process should contact Human Resources at (618) 684-3143, ext. 102.