

Songbook

Eye to eye

(for Lawrie)

When you were young You hid behind your hands blocking out sights and sounds of strangers in your land looking at the world seen through your fingers keeping out the world shyness that lingers

look me in the eye – not such a shy boy now we see eye to eye – always be my boy now through the camera lens you see the picture actors learn their lines, you make the mixture fit the way you see framed by those fingers the way that things should be the songs, not the singers

look me in the eye – not such a shy boy now
we see eye to eye – always be my boy now

©Tony Phillips 2012