

This song is

Wish i was the kind of Guy Who wouldn't look you in the eye Lucky if i said a word
Wanted to be seen and not heard

Didn't have the social graces Liked to hang around in places Where i didn't know the faces

Didn't have my attitude thinking that it's kind of rude to say the first thing on my mind if it's cruel or if it's kind speaking once and thinking tight so every gesture comes out right a smile that hurts more than a bite all that's real

never meant for it to get this complicated anyway
I don't like the character that I've created anyway
I don't say what I mean anyway
I don't mean what I say anyway
