

The 17 Qualities of a Team Player — A Guided Training Series

PRESENTED BY EMSI CONSULTING

Session 2

TO THE TEAM MEMBERS OF (COMPANY NAME)

(COMPANY LOGO)

Based on the book by John C. Maxwell

This training is inspired by the principles outlined in John C. Maxwell's "The 17 Essential Qualities of a Team Player." All original intellectual content is the property of the author. This course is independently created by EMSI Consulting to support leadership and teamwork development.

Adaptable

1: Adaptable A team player adjusts quickly to change and remains flexible in the face of new challenges.

“The ability to adapt is the difference between a team that stays relevant and one that becomes obsolete.” – John C. Maxwell

Competent

5 : Competent : Brings the necessary skills and knowledge to contribute effectively.

“You can’t make a difference unless you have something to give, and competence is the starting point.” – John C. Maxwell

Question 2

Question: COLLABORATION is best demonstrated when team members:

- A. Work independently
- B. Share responsibility and support each other
- C. Avoid disagreements
- D. Always follow the leader

The 17 Qualities of a Team Player — A Guided Training Series

PRESENTED BY EMSI CONSULTING

Session 2

TO THE TEAM MEMBERS OF (COMPANY NAME)

(COMPANY LOGO)

Intentional

10. Intentional · Acts with purpose and focuses on what truly matters for team success

“No one drifts to greatness. Intentionality is what turns good teams into great ones.” – John C. Maxwell

Prepared

12. Prepared : Shows up ready to contribute, having done the necessary work in advance

“Preparation is the price of admission to a winning team.” – John C. Maxwell

7. Disciplined team members manage their time and emotions by

- A. Multitasking all the time
- B. Saying yes to every request
- C. Reacting emotionally when under pressure
- D. Staying focused and acting with maturity

The 17 Qualities of a Team Player — A Guided Training Series

PRESENTED BY EMSI CONSULTING

Session 3

TO THE TEAM MEMBERS OF
(COMPANY NAME)

(COMPANY LOGO)

Self-Improving

14 : Self-Improving : Pursue personal growth to better serve the team.

“The growth of the individual fuels the progress of the team.” – John C. Maxwell

Solution-Oriented

16 : Solution-Oriented : Focuses on solving problems rather than complaining about them.

“A team player brings answers, not excuses.” –
John C. Maxwell

Relational

Question:

What is a key trait of relational team players?

- A) They focus only on results, not people.
- B) They build strong relationships and earn trust.
- C) They prefer working alone to avoid conflict.
- D) They communicate only when necessary.

Compent Place
The Center for Training Website Users

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLETION

On this day, I have completed the course in the website training program.

Era Rehert

I have successfully completed all of your course work
Website Level 10 Course

March 10, 2020

John Smith

10 Years

John Smith