

Cornstarch Paint

- for brush or fingerpainting.

Parents: Add cold water to $\frac{3}{4}$ cup cornstarch to make a smooth, thick paste. Stir in boiling water until mixture is desired consistency. It should be quite thick and nearly clear. Spoon mixture into paint cups and stir 3 to 4 teaspoons of liquid tempera into each cup for color.

It is nearly dripless with a brush!