Scripture

John 21:15-17

“So, when they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me more than these?” He said to Him, “Yes, Lord; You know that I love You.” He said to him, “Tend My lambs.”

He said to him again a second time, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me?” He said to Him, “Yes, Lord; You know that I love You.” He said to him, “Shepherd My sheep.”

He said to him the third time, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me?”

Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, “Do you love Me?” And he said to Him, “Lord, You know all things; You know that I love You.” Jesus said to him, “Tend My sheep.”

I Love You -> Do You Love Me?

We often speak of Jesus’s love for us

How about our love for Him?

The Most Overused Word in the English Language?

Words of Love

Eros -> “a sexual love, physical attraction leading to physical touch”

Storge -> “a family love such as the love between a parent and a child”

Phileo -> “a brotherly friendship love without deep commitment”

Agape -> “a deep devotion with deep commitment”

Jesus told them to meet in Galilee

Matthew 26:31-35

“Then Jesus said to them, “You will all fall away because of Me this night, for it is written: ‘I WILL STRIKE THE SHEPHERD, AND THE SHEEP OF THE FLOCK WILL BE SCATTERED.’ But after I have been raised, I will go ahead of you to Galilee.”

“But Peter replied to Him, “Even if they all fall away because of You, I will never fall away!” Jesus said to him, “Truly I say to you that this very night, before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times.” Peter *said to Him, “Even if I have to die with You, I will not deny You!” All the disciples said the same thing as well.”

Zechariah 13:7

“Awake, O sword, against My Shepherd, and against the man, My Associate,” Declares the LORD of hosts. “Strike the Shepherd that the sheep may be scattered; And I will turn My hand against the little ones.”

The brash Peter declares his loyalty to the Lord!

We know what happened with Peter, don't we?

The Beach Scene

Jesus meets the disciples in Galilee as was planned.

Does Jesus purposely show up late?

He has done this before with Lazarus (John 11)

Resignation

John 21:1-3

“After these things Jesus manifested Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias, and He manifested Himself in this way.

Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples were together. Simon Peter said to them, “I am going fishing.” They said to him, “We will also come with you.” They went out and got into the boat; and that night they caught nothing.”

“I am going fishing!”

Caught up with his personal failures, after waiting for the Lord to show up, Peter is frustrated.

His plan for the Lord's ascension into power didn't happen.

He's going back to his old life, his old line of work

After the Lord's death, Peter has other ideas

"We will also come with you!"

Peter was the oldest and the de facto leader of group, he influenced the others

James and John, as well as Andrew, were fishermen. Everyone is going to follow Peter

"They caught nothing"

Jesus said he was no longer to be fishing for fish but fishing for men (Matthew 4:19)

Providentially, there was no fish to be caught

The Lord Shows Up

John 21:4-11

"But when the day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. So, Jesus said to them, "Children, you do not have any fish, do you?" They answered Him, "No."

And He said to them, "Cast the net on the right-hand side of the boat and you will find a catch." So, they cast, and then they were not able to haul it in because of the great number of fish.

Therefore, that disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord." So, when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put his outer garment on (for he was stripped for work) and threw himself into the sea. But the other disciples came in the little boat, for they were not far from the land, but about one hundred yards away, dragging the net full of fish.

So, when they got out on the land, they saw a charcoal fire already laid and fish placed on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have now caught." Simon Peter went up and drew the net to land, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three; and although there were so many, the net was not torn."

You don't have any fish, DO YOU?

The Lord knows they have no fish because He is controlling the catch.

"Cast the net to the right-hand side of the boat"

Suddenly, fish jump into the net, 153 of them!

John recognizes that it is the Lord!

Peter jumps into the water. He cannot wait to see the Lord. Why do you think Peter did that?

The Lord controlled the fish in the Gospels... He's teaching them that He STILL controls the fish!

In the Resurrection, He is STILL Lord...the original plan is still in place.

The Lord made breakfast!

Where did the fish come from? "I will provide for you, Peter. You don't need to do that!"

Rehabilitation

John 21:15

"So, when they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me more than these?" He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He said to him, "Tend My lambs."

Do you love Me? (Hopeful? or Doubtful?)

Jesus uses agape, the highest level of love with the deepest commitment

More than these

More than these other disciples?

More than these fish!

Why? Because Peter was going back to the fishing career

Peter's Response: "Yes Lord, you know that I love you"

Peter responds using phileo, a brotherly love

Jesus: Do You Love Me deeply?

Peter: Lord, I like you a lot...

Feed / Tend

"bosko" – "to feed with nourishment" -> the inference is spiritual nourishment

Lambs

"arnion" – "a little lamb" – the inference is a spiritual baby, those new to the faith

Not a reference to the other disciples

Peter is to be committed to teach the Word to those the Lord would be bringing into the Kingdom and providentially bringing to Peter

John 21:16

He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?" He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He said to him, "Shepherd My sheep."

Do you love Me?

Jesus again uses agape, the highest level of love with the deepest commitment

Not in relation to the fish this time, but in general saying, "Peter, what level of commitment do you have for Me?"

John 6:66-68

"As a result of this many of His disciples withdrew and were not walking with Him anymore. So, Jesus said to the twelve, "You do not want to go away also, do you?"

Simon Peter answered Him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have words of eternal life."

Jesus was talking about His death and drinking His blood and eating His body. It was madness to those who did not have insight into what He was teaching.

Jesus asks, "Are you going away also?"

Peter says, "Where are we going to go? You are the only One with words of life"

Matthew 19:25-27 (after the Rich Young Ruler leaves)

"When the disciples heard this, they were very astonished and said, "Then who can be saved?" And looking at them Jesus said to them, "With people this is impossible, but with God all things are possible." Then Peter said to Him, "Behold, we have left everything and followed You"

The disciples gave up their lives to follow Him. Peter, Andrew, James, and John weren't fishing any longer, Matthew no longer collected taxes, Simon the Zealot gave up political ambitions

What is Peter's great response to Jesus's question this time?

Peter's Response: "Yes Lord, you know that I love you"

Peter responds using phileo, a brotherly love

Jesus: Do You Love Me deeply?

Peter: Lord, I like you a lot...

Shepherd

“poimano” -> “to guard, guide, and protect the flock”

Jesus called Himself the Good Shepherd

John 10:11

“I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd lays down His life for the sheep.”

He was not a hired hand like others who would run away if there was a wolf nearby

Good shepherds would lay in the doorway, protect the sheep with their lives.

“You’ve gotta get by me, first, if you’re going to get my sheep”

Jesus said that about Himself and the disciples

John 17:12

“While I was with them, I was keeping them in Your name which You have given Me; and I guarded them and not one of them perished but the son of perdition, so that the Scripture would be fulfilled.”

Sheep

“probation” – “A sheep or someone easily led, one way or the other like sheep”

Not only the little ones that don’t know any better, but the whole flock!

Jesus delayed long enough for Peter to go back to fishing and led the others to follow him into the water.

“What are you going to do when I’m not around, Peter?”

Can you imagine the Lord saying, “I’m going to Glory. You’re not going to see Me any longer. You think this little kerfuffle of denying Me three times is a big deal?”

“Wait until the real pressure is on you because it’s coming your way.”

John 21:17

“He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?"

Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, "Do you love Me?" And he said to Him, "Lord, You know all things; You know that I love You." Jesus said to him, "Tend My sheep."

Do you love Me?

This time, Jesus uses phileo, a brotherly friendship love without deep commitment

Grieved

Why was Peter grieved?

Was it because Jesus was continuing to ask Peter the same question? Three times?

It was a different question

Jesus is questioning whether Peter even has a brotherly love for Him

Tend/Feed My Sheep!

Rededication

John 21:18

“Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to gird yourself and walk wherever you wished; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands and someone else will gird you and bring you where you do not wish to go.”

Jesus reveals to Peter what his future looks like

He will have freedom for a while but then he will be stretched out and give his life for Christ

Peter got the message and learned the lesson...

1 Peter 5:1-4

“Therefore, I exhort the elders among you, as your fellow elder and witness of the sufferings of Christ, and a partaker also of the glory that is to be revealed, shepherd the flock of God among you, exercising oversight not under compulsion, but voluntarily, according to the will of God; and not for sordid gain, but with eagerness; nor yet as lording it over those allotted to your charge but proving to be examples to the flock.

And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory.”

- Not because you're forced to do it
- Not for the money
- Not for fame or glory
- Not for being able to be in charge and boss people around

When Christ comes back, He will give you all the glory you need.

What about Our Dedication to the Lord?

Do you just like Him a lot?

Do you have a deep devoted love for Him?
