STRANGE REALMS

Friday, May 27th, from 10:30am-1:30pm (EST)
on Zoom

What the class is about...

Weird worlds, peculiar places, and eerie environments. That's where we'll find ourselves in this workshop. We will explore what it means for something to be weird, science fiction, mythical, or magical and focus our attention on elements of world building!

What we'll do...

We will create and destroy worlds. We will engage in world-building exercises and generative free-writing to help writers build out their worlds. Other exercises will include creating an entire world on the back of a napkin and writing your characters into (or out of) someone else's world.

Class Format

This class will take place using Zoom videoconferencing. About 15 minutes before your class is scheduled to begin, you'll receive an email from your instructor with a link to join the class meeting!
