

ENVIRONMENT

Our team has the training and skills needed for complete range of environmental assessment and monitoring. We have experience in discussing and dealing with local & governmental authorities, IFC, and support you to comply with lenders' requirements & standards.

Our professionals and associates have the necessary training, background knowledges, and expertise to develop and carry out monitoring and assessment for every aspect of environment. IHI works with a pool of experts specializing in various fields who can clearly identify the situation and apply innovative solutions.

Our broad capabilities, combined with our great understanding of local cultures, regulatory practices and emerging global issues, trends and techniques, provide clients with a single source for your environmental needs.

Doing business with us is a guarantee of quality and success.

- Environmental & social impact assessment
- Ambient air monitoring
- Stationary source testing
- Air quality dispersion modeling
- Noise & vibration modeling
- Sediment and water quality
- Bathymetry & hydrology
- Plant and wildlife inventories
- Aquatic surveys
- Wetland studies
- Water balance plan
- Site assessment and remediation
- Hydrogeological studies
- Hazardous material inventory
- Contaminated site remediation
- Waste management and tailing reuse
- Revegetation and erosion control
- Social acceptability
- Resettlement action plan