Get Ready for

During the month of January, SAM (Social and Mission Concerns) will be collecting cans of soup & chili for the Neighborhood House and Inland Valley Hope Partners. So bring in a can, or even two! Your donations will help provide a warm meal for individuals & families who need some extra help during our cooler winter months. Thanks for your support!

Chino Youth Christmas Parade

What a lovely day in the neighborhood! Lots of rain did not dampen the Annual Chino Youth Christmas Parade. Unfortunately, none of the bands played with the exception of the DES Band from across the street. However, there were lots of children and young adults who participated with floats of every kind imaginable. We were blessed again with lots of able bodies that helped with the coffee, hot chocolate and lots of doughnuts! Again, many hands make the work light! Thank you again to our church family who help with so many projects. YOU ARE THE BEST!

Annual Shoe Drive

With your help church family, we were able to collect nearly six dozen pair of shoes as well as many pairs of socks for the Chino Neighborhood House. A special thank you to Sue Rhoades who supplied this cause with about two dozen pair of shoes by herself. B J Bardwell and Lupe Alcantar kindly took them to the Neighborhood House on Monday, December 16th so they could be distributed during their Christmas Party and before Christmas.

Thank you again to the wonderful church family of the Chino United Methodist Church.

Hygiene Kits/Food Pouches/Food Pantry

Donna Maddox had a very unique 90th Birthday in that she asked for items for the hygiene kits, food pouches and the food pantry instead of birthday gifts. She and her family brought in bags and boxes filled with all sorts of items-canned food, toothbrushes/toothpaste, shampoo, conditioner, combs, etc. We are so blessed to have all of these supplies to share with our Chino community. Thank you Donna again for such a wonderful way to help with our small missionary outreach. You are the BEST!
