

In-Studio LLC

Administration and Teacher Biographies:

Timothy Grossi

General Partner and owner of Fragile Music Group in Orland Park, IL. FMG is a commercial recording studio that has recorded many top clients with platinum records. Timothy is an accomplished musician, studio owner, record label owner, and highly successful businessman. Timothy has discovered, recorded and produced artists whom have received lucrative record deals from major record labels. His experience and wisdom are shared with the students to guide them on the path of having a music career and how to plan strategically.

He also owned a successful real estate company with over 150 agents working for him. With his systematic methods and excellent communication skills he inspires and directs the team with his strategies and lead by example way.

Always at the forefront of technology, Timothy equips the studio with latest hardware and software technology keeping us up to date with today's ever-changing sound design and techniques. Students hang on every word of Timothy's instruction and guidance into the music industry.