Established in Hermosillo, Sonora, Mexico since 1989, our outfitter is not easy to beat when it comes to hunting and hospitality. This owner’s personal attention supports his motto: “We always give you our best” on 185,000 acres. Whether it’s Doves, Quails, Pheasants, Waterfowls, Mule deer, Coues deer, Gould’s turkey or Desert Bighorn Sheep, his family and staff will do whatever is possible to ensure that our guests experience an adventure of a lifetime. This Outfitter is not defined only by his large population of birds in Sonora, or our high Mule deer & Coues deer success rate over the years, but by our class service; 90% of repeat guests it’s a proof of it.

DESERT SHEEP: Sonora it’s the place when it comes Desert Sheep and here he has 100% success... all 165 points or better.

MULE and COUES DEER: The hunt is done under natural conditions; fair chase is the name of the game where your tracker can lead you to the trophy of your dreams and will turn your trip into a real adventure. The success rate is 95% over the last 10 years. Many B&C and SCI Trophies have been taken here.

 OCELLATED

TURKEY: Sonora is home of the Gould’s Turkey, the largest of the turkey species in America. You can surely test all your techniques and skills to call and hunt these beautiful large birds. A guide is provided for each hunter. These guides are excellent callers and are familiar with the hunting areas. The success rate is 100% over the last 10 years.

Note: As of the 2010 season there has been a government change where the animals must be shipped after the proper paperwork has been completed which will be after the end of the season. It is then shipped to you by UPS

DOVE, QUAIL, WATERFOWL: Jovial shouts and enthusiastic laughter amidst a peach-colored morning sky provide the backdrop for fast action dove shooting. Both Mourning and White Wing Doves are plentiful. Exclusive hunting areas consist primarily of wheat, corn and sorghum fields, orchards and vineyards are also occasionally productive. Mourning dove & white winged dove are the most common species you will hunt. Both pacific and central flights converge us every winter making Sonora a waterfowl paradise. Pintail, mallards, widgeon, Mexican black ducks, redhead, gadwall, green, blue and cinnamon teal and a few others are the quarry on a regular morning. Picture yourself on the magnificent Sonora Desert with thousands of acres of "tumbleweeds" and in between big corn, sorghum or Milo fields. In a good morning you will raise anything from 3 to 10 coveys with 10 to 100 birds each, come and you better be quick this "wild birds" won't give you a chance to think, just shoot! Gamble and Elegant quail are the species you will find here. This beautiful 18th century carefully restored hacienda that will be your hunting lodge, located in the valley of Ures, Sonora, former capital of the state, only 36 miles east from Hermosillo... and it's the headquarters for Doves, Quails & Waterfowl.
